AMHA news Fund Raising going well

by John Rogers
This is the first column that the Free Press is allowing me to write on AMHA executive news and other special events such as the trip to Norway.

First, for some executive appointments, Bruce Cargill is the director responsible for organizing the 500 Club Lottery. Team directors this year will be: Stu Robertson with the Midgets, Harold Townsley with the Major Bantams, Heidi Coleman with the Minor Bantams, Cliff Wedge with the Pee-Wees, Brian Canary with the Atoms and Steve Yaroschak with the Novices.

At the last executive meeting the situation regarding tournaments was clarified. Each team may go to as many tournaments as they wish but they will receive only $150 toward their costs.

NORWAY NEWS
The fund raising now stands at $8500 thanks to our recent cheese sale and a very successful dance at the band hall on Nov. 2.

Park Lincoln Mercury Sales have volunteered to give $50 towards the fund-raising for every new or used car purchased. To qualify, pick up a special business card from a member of the fund raising committee before making the purchase and present it to the salesman.

Midas Muffler shops in Milton and Bathurst / St. Claire will donate 10 per cent of the cost of work done to the fund raising. Pleaseturn in proof of purchase to a member of the fundraising committee.

Watch out for our Christmas cheesecake and a special benefit Old-timers game on Dec. 7.
On behalf of the two teams, thank you for your continued support.

Yard sale success
The AMHA fund-raising committee reported a very successful yard and bake Sale held Oct. 20 and the committee wishes to thank everyone for their donations.

Dance money
Jan Hayter and assistants sure know how to put on a dance. Held at the band hall Nov. 2 to raise money for the upcoming Norway trip, the dance was a complete success.
Everyone who attended had a super time.

Parent meeting
There will be a Midget and Bantam parents' meeting November 15 at the Acton arena at 7:30 to discuss, and advise those concerned, the fund raising happenings to date.

Cheese sale
The AMHA will be holding another cheese sale to further fund raising for the Bantam and Midget team trip to Norway.

The cheese will be on sale immediately with delivery during the first week in December and another cheese sale will be held around the middle of next month.
Contact AMHA members or planning committee for cheese orders now.

Quilt tickets available
Tickets are still available for the AMHA's quilt and cedar chest draw from all team members and executive.
The draw will be held December 22 and tickets are 50 cents each for three for $1.

Bon Voyage party
A "Bon Voyage" party for the people travelling to Norway is scheduled for Friday Dec. 7 from 7:30-9:30.

Huff and Puff exhibition
The Halton Hills Huff and Puffers of the Meadowvale league and the Acton Stingers of the Erin league will be doing battle in a fund raising match Dec. 7 at 7:30.

Lucky programs and 50%50 draw tickets will be on sale.
Admission is $1 and advance tickets will be available at the arena, J and T Sports and Ed's In and Out Variety.
