

Swim Stars swamp opponents for second place in S.W.O.R.S.A. meet

The Acton Swimming Stars made a big splash in recent swimming competitions for entry into finals of the South Western Ontario Regional Swimming Association (SWORSA) coming in second only 39 points behind first place Fergus. Acton competed against nine teams and a superb showing by the local girls earned them a first place overall finish in their division.

In their first meet of the season the Swim Stars took on the Woodstock Y competing against many Canadian Amateur Swimming Association swimmers. (CASA) The Swim Stars, who are usually competing against lower level teams, competed with CASA athletes for the first time.

Household Hints
From Prudential

Meat loaf won't stick to the dish or pan if you place a strip of bacon underneath before baking. Adds flavor, too.

Keep a roll of paper towels in the bathroom. They're handy for quick wipe ups of sink or floor, and better than fabric towels when the kids wash.

Old Panel-backed vinyl table cloths make great book covers because they're washable, they're especially suitable for cookbooks and schoolbooks.
