Lucky penny adds to charm of Hilfman - Roman wedding

Following a family tradition, Wendy Elizabeth Hilfman carried a special lucky penny in her shoe when she walked down the aisle to marry Richard Stephen Roman

Sept. 1. It was one of several innovations that made the double ring garden wedding at Pine Creek Farm all the more charming.

Wendy is the daughter of Edith Hilfman of RR 4 Acton and the late Lloyd Hilfman and works for A.H. Robins of Mississauga. Rick is the son of Harold and Wiltrud Roman, also of RR 4 Acton, and is self-employed with Romblake General Property Improvements.

Rev. Donald Matheson and Karen Hilfman Millson, the bride's sister, officiated at the mid-afternoon outdoor ceremony while guitarist Dave Flurey provided accompaniment. For the service, Wendy placed a special penny in her shoe just as her mother and grandmother had done for their weddings. She wore a white silk gown with a low, off-the-shoulder neckline trimmed with hand-made roses of the same material. The gown was hand-made for the occasion by the groom's mother.

Wendy carried orchids as she and Rick stepped forward to receive their parents' blessings and take their wedding vows. Maid of honor Jane Kerby and bridesmaids Janis Hilfman Gillrie, Lise Roman and Kathy Worrell wore calf-length pink on white over pink off-the-shoulder dresses and wreaths of baby's breath on their heads. Michael Blakey was best man and Michael Marzalik, Stuart Evelyn and Fred Hermann were ushers.

After the ceremony, the bride and groom greeted guests in a receiving line. Guests were served champagne as the newlyweds boarded a horse-drawn buggy that took them to their reception at the Halton Hills Centre in Speyside, where 106 friends and relatives enjoyed dinner and dancing.

Emcee John Romanov, the groom's brother, called upon the bride's mother to give a reading from Kahil Gibran and invited the groom's father to make a speech.

The wedding cake was made by the groom's mother and decorated by Wendy's sister-in-law, Melva Hilfman.

Special guests included the bride's paternal grandmother, Mrs. D. Park (Hilfman), age 89, and her uncle from Naples, Florida, Mr. C. Brownhill.

The newlyweds spent their honeymoon in Quebec City, the Gaspe Peninsula and New Brunswick.

Mexican honeymoon for area newlyweds

Friends and relatives from Acton joined other guests from West Germany and western Canada to see Angela Schmidt and Robert Donald Davidson, both of Guelph, become husband and wife Sept. 29.

A week-long honeymoon in Cancun, Mexico, awaited Angela, daughter of Mr.

She carried Minuet roses, German status, Stefanose and English ivy which was later removed to be planted.

Matron of honor was the bride's best friend, Jane Perry of Ottawa, and bridesmaids were Angela's sister, Monika Tomlinson of Guelph and cousins Brenda Steinnagel of Hamilton and Elke Zeissig of Acton.

The bridesmaids wore long burgundy gowns and hats.

Best man was the groom's best friend, Gord Tomlinson, and ushers were his brother Bill Adair of Eden Mills, Darrell Brenner of Coquitlam, B.C., and David Perry of Ottawa, both friends.

Robert and his attendants wore charcoal grey jackets with tails. Both mothers wore blue dresses to help greet some 125 guests at the dinner-reception which followed at the German-Canadian Club in Guelph.

Emcee David Tomlinson, Angela's brother-in-law and a good friend of Robert's, invited the guests to enjoy a wedding cake prepared by Wilma Fuller of Eden Mills. It featured a glass cake top.

Guests included the bride's godparents, Mr. and Mrs. Erwin Schmidt of Holle, West Germany, the groom's sister, Jan, and her husband, Greg Jolliffe from B.C., Robert's sister Barbara Davidson also of B.C., and another sister, Debbie Cavanaugh of Alberta. Other guests attended from Ottawa, Huntsville, Toronto, Guelph, Acton, St. Ann's, St. Catharines, Hamilton, Kitchener and Niagara-on-the-Lake.

Before the wedding, Robert and Angela were treated to showers hosted by Kathie and Rob McLaughlin of Guelph (for Angela's co-workers); Cathy Adair, the groom's sister-in-law, in Eden Mills; Elke and Elfrida Zeissig, the bride's cousin and aunt, in Acton; and Brenda and Anneliese Steinnagel, another cousin and aunt, in Hamilton (for the family).

They also enjoyed a stag and doe at the Eden Mills Community Hall hosted by Gord Tomlinson and family.

The newlyweds are making their new home at 381 Edinburgh Rd. South, Apartment 101, Guelph.

MR. AND MRS. ROBERT DAVIDSON and Mrs. Hugo Schmidt of Harvard Rd. in Guelph, and Robert, son of Mr. and Mrs. Alex Davidson of Edinburgh Rd. South.

Angela is a computer operator at the University of Guelph and Robert is a factory helper at Acton's Building Products plant.

They were married in a 4 p.m. double ring ceremony at St. Paul's Lutheran Church with Pastor Jon Fogelman officiating. Peter West played the organ and Ron Pfeiffer soloed on flute.

Angela wore a full-length white organza gown with a train, sheer sleeves and satin bows around the cuffs and waist and a single bow on the hat. The dress featured five rows of ruffled lace around the bottom and the hat included a waist-length veil.

Legion news

By JIM HIGGINS

Last Friday evening was a first for Branch 197. Approximately 100 people (students, parents, teachers, Branch members, spouses and guests) gathered for the presentation of awards for the poster, essay and poem entries.

Last year, one entry was received. This year the number surged to 58 entries. No doubt this is very gratifying to the hard working chairman, Harry Norton, along with comrades New, Baker, Milne and Storey, who visited all schools to deliver their message.

Among the guests were Angus Roy, Zone B7 Commander and Norman Dick, chairman of this programme for Zone B7.

New Year's tickets are now on sale at the Branch, same price as last year: $35 per couple, all inclusive.

Our Curling team of P. Vidler, A. McKerracher, C. Rosenquist and D. Dick repeated last year's victory in the District "B" competition. Congratulations follows.

Branch 197 and our Ladies Auxillary are going to ensure that family swimming will be available during Christmas week. Members are reminded of following coming events: Dec. 15—Turkey Roll—2 p.m.; Dec. 16 Children's Christmas Party—2 p.m.; Euchre (Turkeys, etc.) Dec. 21—7.30 p.m.

TRAFALGAR CASTLE SCHOOL
(Founded 1874)
WHERE WE STILL LISTEN

For one hundred and ten years we have been listening to young ladies at Trafalgar Castle...we listen when they fail to grasp an academic concept...we listen when they have social problems...we listen to their laughter at play and their singing in chapel. Over the past century of offering superior education we have tried to respond to each girl as an individual. Our small size (180 students), our gracious environment (we live in a castle) our long established tradition and our modern facilities (a new academic wing has just been added) make listening and responding, not a hollow promise, but a commitment. When our graduates go on to college they do so with a sense of having been educated in a special place and having been treated as special people.
