

Neilsen's upset Acton Travel 5-2

On the Industrial Hockey scene this week, A.T.W. upset J and T Sports 5-3, Jug City clipped Family Cleaners 6-5 and Neilsen's Clothing dumped Acton Travel 5-2.

In round one action Glen McKenzie led the A.T.W. assault with two goals and George Artem, Don Brouillard and Mike Petkoff added a marker each to clinch the win.

Artem, Steve McIntyre and Petkoff claimed the assists.

Gary Pickles, Dave Morris and Rick Miller shared the J and T scoring duties with a goal each and Marty Collarton, Scott Withers, Floyd Hillier and Steve Brunelle aided on the plays.

Chris Tennant, Jim Haggert, Bill Manes, Andre Patkos, Mike Manes and Tim McIntyre each managed to find the net once to claim the win for Jug City.

McIntyre, Craig Andrews, Tennant, Hag-gett, Bill Manes, Patkos, Bill Fabian and Mike Manes recorded the assists.

Family Cleaners goals were tallied by John Snow with two and Russ Miller, Rick Baginski and Marvin McNabb with one each.

McNabb, Mike Morris and Snow assisted on the plays.

Jeff Townsley and Chris Rowsell pounded in two goals apiece to lead Neilsen's to victory and Todd McIntyre rounded out the score with a single tally.

Rick Lott, Gary Moore, John Ashly and Dave Paul assisted.

Ted Saitz and Don Thornhill scored for Acton Travel with help from Thornhill, Rob Evans and Terry Winters.

Atoms axe Kitchener

The Glenlea Drugs Minor Atoms continued their winning ways this week taking two wins against Kitchener.

Acton goalies Ricky Demone and Don Crispin played extremely well in net Nov. 27 to help their team establish a 9-1 on home ice. Then, on Saturday, the Atoms travelled to Kitchener where they were once again victorious, defeating their opposition 6-3.

In their 9-1 win over Kitchener, Brad Hayter racked up four goals Acton, Brad Cripps tallied a pair and Steven Turkosz, Troy MacDougall and Jim Lloyd added single points.

Assists came from Jeremy Cooney, Hayter, Don Haynes, Brad Cripps, Kent Stucky and Jim Lloyd.

Demone and Crispin shared the goal tending duties again on Saturday and Hayter continued to collect goals by beating the Kitchener net minder twice. Jim Lloyd also found the net twice and MacDougall and Turkosz netted a point each.

Acton assists came from Hayter, Shane Carcum and Crispin.

Pee-Wees win in Bramalea

In three games this week, the Charette Woodworking Major Pee-Wees chalked up one win and two losses.

Visiting Bramalea Nov. 27 the Acton squad rolled over their opponents 3-1 and, then on Nov. 28 Charettes fell to Elora 4-2. On Sunday the Pee-Wees suffered another loss, this time to Cambridge 3-1.

While in Bramalea, Marty McAfee, assisted by Robbie Lockhurst, answered one early Bramalea goal to tie the games.

Lockhurst, assisted by Gerry Hurlburt and Paul McLeod put Acton in the lead in the second period and a final goal by Paul Westaway clinched the game for Charettes.

Westaway was assisted by McAfee and Eric Mattson.

Acton opened the scoring against Elora early in the first frame and, then Elora came back to tie the game at the end of the opening period.

Greg Waller, aided by Mattson, put Acton back in front in the second period only to have Elora retie the game moments later.

Elora managed to keep Acton off the scoreboard in the third period and pounded in two goals to dump their hosts.

On Sunday Acton travelled to Cambridge where both teams wound up the opening period at a 0-0 tie.

Coming into the second period Cambridge scored twice to take the lead.

Paul McLeod answered for one goal with help from Lockhurst but a final Cambridge goal midway through the third period clinched the game for Acton's opposition.

Several Acton winners were crowned at the Youth Bowling Council's Muscular Dystrophy Tourney recently. Front row, l. to r. are Jeff Burton (Second in Junior Pins over average with a plus 119), and Michelle Pierce (Third Senior Pins over average with a plus 107). Back row is Suzanna Deforest (Top Money Earner with $254) and Joyce McElsac (Third Junior with a plus 99 Pins over Average).
