

Christmas celebrations at Temple

The joyous Christmas celebration is starting early at Halton Gospel Temple, Georgetown as the congregation tries to get ahead of the Christmas rush.

Carol singing began the first Sunday of December and in every Sunday service until the end of the month.

Thursday, December 6, Women's Ministries Christmas banquet at 6:30 p.m. is a special event always looked forward to by the ladies. Held in the country home of Val Grant, Mrs. G. Parlee is guest speaker.

Friday, December 14, annual Kin Court Christmas dinner is always a happy event hosted by Pamela Johnston and the ladies of Halton Gospel Temple. The meal is served by the youth of the church who will also supply the entertainment.

Sunday, December 16 is the Annual Christmas Celebration at 6:30 p.m. The public is invited to see members of every family in the church perform in: "Christmas is a Miracle" the story of Christmas, presented through a dream of a newspaper boy. Mr. Sue Dunn will produce the program and refreshments will be served later.

Special music will highlight each Sunday service during December, both vocal and instrumental. Tapes of the services are available for shut-ins.

On Friday, December 21, a Youth Christmas party will be held at Grant Parsons' country home.

Approve projects on Credit River

The Credit Valley Conservation Authority has received approval from the Ministry of Natural Resources, to undertake preventative erosion control works at five sites along the Credit River and Applewood Creek within the Regional Municipalities of Halton and Peel.

At these particular locations, existing buildings and commercial facilities are being threatened by a variety of slope stability and severe bank erosion problems. Installations of gabions, riprap, slope drainage improvements and revegetation are the proposed erosion protection measures. Installation of erosion control measures will prevent major capital works projects in the future, the Authority explains.

The Authority has completed over eight erosion control projects this year.
