

Yule fun for Knox Ladies Aid

A Christmas tree and decorations adorned the home of Mr. and Mrs. Harry Murray, High St., 25 North Tuesday, Nov. 27 for the Christmas party of Knox Ladies Aid, also the last meeting of the year.

Rev. Craig and Mrs. Cribar were welcomed as guests.

A fine selection of hot and cold foods from the potluck table was enjoyed by everyone. A short business session was held after the dinner with Mrs. Murray presiding and reading a verse, "Let us live a Christmas Day every day."

"Christmas customs in the old home" were recalled as each answered the roll.

At the close of the business year, donations were approved to the finance board of the church, the Sunday School and the Knox College Restoration Fund.

Later, games were conducted by the hostess, assisted by her daughter, Mrs. J.B. MacPherson, and everyone became a winner.

An exchange of Christmas gifts was conducted by Mrs. C. Armstrong, acting as Santa Claus.

In closing the meeting, Mrs. Murray read a timely poem, "Just before Christmas."

Sincere thanks was expressed by Mrs. W. J. McLeod on behalf of everyone present for the very enjoyable afternoon at this hospitable home with Mr. and Mrs. Murray as hosts.

Acton's new street lamps are being installed this week along Mill St. from the four corners to the railway tracks. According to town engineer Bob Austin, 33 custom-made lamps were received by the Town last week and installation should be completed shortly.

Knox plans Yule potluck

The Knox "Alert" Evening Group met in the Mary Ellen Anderson Room.

The call to worship, "Thankful," was given by Lil McLennan, followed by the hymn "Onward Christian Soldiers".

Lil read the scripture, John 15: 1-13, and led in prayer.

Vera Inglis gave two readings, "Straight Talk" and "A Psalm in Time of War."

Lil gave a reading, "View from the Other Side of the Front Line" and Vera gave another reading, "I Was in Prison and You Came to Visit Me."

The hymn "Lead on, O King Eternal" was sung and Vera read a little poem, "October," and closed the program with prayer.

The secretary's treasurer's reports were read and adopted.

The Copper Contest brought in $40.75. It was moved by Wilma Coles and seconded by Gladys Davidson that the treasurer send $25.00 to the Presbyterian Treasurer.

The Offering was received and Lil gave the Offertory Prayer.

Our December Pot Luck Supper will begin at 6 p.m. There will be a gift exchange and Vera was to phone members who haven't been able to attend lately and invite them to the Christmas meeting. Babe was to invite Mr. and Mrs. Cribar.

The election of officers took place with a few changes in the executive.

The Mizpah Benediction closed the meeting and a delicious lunch followed.

Obituary

Andrew Mashinter was 80

A life-long area resident, Andrew Giffen Mashinter died Nov. 27 at his Wallace St. home. He was 80.

Mr. Mashinter was born April 18, 1904, in Chinguacousy Township, the son of William Mashinter and Mary Lauretta Giffen. He worked as a miller and later a driver for McCarthy Mill in Streetsville before retiring. He lived in Ballinacred before moving to Acton.

A bachelor, Mr. Mashinter was predeceased by his brother William Thomas Mashinter. He is survived by his sister, Lilly Etta Nattress of Ilington.

Also left to mourn are nieces Marilyn MacEachern of Acton and Lois Donnet of Etobicoke, nephew Norman Mashinter of Calgary, brother-in-law Ken Nattress of Ilington and nine great-nieces and nephews.

Rev. Don Matheson conducted a service at the Shoemaker Funeral Home in Acton Nov. 29 prior to interment at Brampton Cemetery. Pallbearers were friends Clarence Allan and Murray LaRose, nephews Dave MacEachern and Ross Donnet and three great-nephews, Danny Donnet and Gary and Wayne MacEachern.

Gas odor at Acton home

Firefighters investigated an odor of gasoline at 239 Kingham Rd. Tuesday about 9:30 p.m. Finding no cause, the fire department called in the Region to check it out.

Last Wednesday, the garbage bin behind the Acton Free Press on Willow St. caught fire at 9:30 p.m. No cause was determined.
