LOSES 32 Rabbits Says Dogs Did It

Lloyd McNeil, 15th Sideroad near the 7th Line, reported the loss of 32 rabbits amounting to $300, to Esqueving council, Monday night. He blamed dogs running in packs.

He told of calling the Georgetown Police, then the North Halton OPP, then the Humane Society in Oakville, then the Dog Control Officer. "I'm afraid the dogs may be rabid" he stated. He claimed the Dog Control Officer said he couldn't come out without a written request from council. After that he called the municipal building, and Delmar French came down and saw the damage, said Mr. McNeil.

WHAT OF CHILDREN
"The dogs run up and down there all the time" said Mr. McNeil, "if they can rip through wire cages, what could they do to the children who get off the bus in front of my house," he asked.

Reeve George Currie pointed that the Livestock Protection Act covered cattle, sheep, and poultry only, with no mention of rabbits.

"Dogs are supposed to be tied up" retorted Mr. McNeil, "What would happen if I shoot one of these dogs" he demanded.

"That's exactly what I would do" replied the reeve.

CAN DO NOTHING'S
"I think it's a funny thing that I would be paid if it were cattle, but not paid when it's rabbits which are caged," contended Mr. McNeil.

"We can do nothing, it is not covered in the Livestock Act," stated deputy reeve Tom Hill.
