Three goal performances by Don Norton and Paul Robinson propelled Georgetown Raiders to a double figure victory over sagging Cheltenham Harvesters here Sunday afternoon. It was Raiders last home game of the regular schedule.

Harv Newlove, in the Cheltenham net, in place of Barry Smith was beaten three times in each of the first and second periods and let four get by in the third period and Georgetown powered their way to a 10-3 win.

LEAD TO STAY

They managed a third goal with three minutes to go.

It took Paul Robinson just a minute and 48 seconds to put the home club into the lead to stay.

Terry Lane scored six minutes later and Robinson repeated with four minutes left in the period.

20 SECONDS APART

Blake Inglis, Don Norton and Terry Lane pushed Raiders production to six before the second period was out. And Norton with a pair, Robinson again and then Dennis Schmeidler jacked it to 10.
