Newfoundland Club is Active, 130 Members

Georgetown Newfoundland club, which meets the first Monday of each month at Cedarvale Community Centre, has a thriving membership of 130 at present, reflecting the heavy emigration of Newfoundland natives to this area in recent years.

There is usually a game of cards following the business meeting, followed by refreshments, and the club extends its hospitality to any who claim island ancestry.

PLAN DANCE
An upcoming project is a Valentine Dance, planned for the new Sacre Coeur church hall.

The group is headed by Mike Flynn as president and Leo Fitzpatrick, vice president. Graham Porter is secretary and Herb Gosse treasurer and there is an executive committee, Ian Farrar, Mrs. Porter, and Mrs. Fitzpatrick.
