

NATIONAL SCOUT AND GUIDE WEEK

AIMS OF SCOUTING

Scouting aids in the building of character, helping boys to develop into responsible citizens of their country.

Scouting does not compete with either the church, home or school. Scouting recognizes that these three institutions are the major influences to the building of good character in youth, and that Scout training is supplementary and complementary to them.

AIMS OF GUIDING

The aim of the Girl Guides in Canada — Guides du Canada is to assist girls from 7 to 18 in the formation of character, by encouraging them to be responsible citizens of their country and the world; by introducing them to adventure and the out-of-doors; by training them in skills which will help them to become good homemakers; and to experience the joy of giving service to others.

1970 - Canadian Girl Guides Diamond Jubilee

60 years ago the first Girl Guide Company was formed in St. Catharines, Ont. Today there are nearly 12,000 Packs and Companies of Brownies, Guides and Rangers across Canada with a membership of nearly 300,000. Of these, 23 Packs and Companies are active in Georgetown, Norval, Glen Williams, and Ballinacree, with a total of 356 Brownies, 111 Guides, 26 Rangers and 47 Leaders.

February 22nd, Thinking Day, these girls, along with all the others in Canada and in 86 other Member Countries of the World Guide Association; will remember the birthdays of their founder, the late Lord Baden-Powell, and their World Chief Guide, Lady Baden-Powell. On this day a chain of warm friendly thoughts encircle the globe. Many of us have never seen each other, but we all belong to the same World Family of Guiding.
