

Crown Attorney D. Latimer New Law Association Head

Douglas Latimer of Georgetown succeeded Kenneth A. Langdon of Georgetown as president of the Halton County Law Association at the annual HCLA meeting in Oakville, February 16. The meeting was held in conjunction with the opening of the mid-winter Assizes of the Supreme Court of Ontario in Milton.

DOUGLAS LATIMER
President

Two other Georgetown lawyers, Jack R. Belleghem and Ronald R. Dodokin were made directors.

JUDGES GUESTS

Guests for the evening included Mr. Justice A. E. Richardson, presiding Justice at the mid-winter Assizes of the Supreme Court of Ontario, His Honour Judge Alan B. Sprague, County Court Judge, County of Halton; Provincial Judges James R. Black, Kenneth M. Langdon, M. J. Cloney and Robert J. Graham; and Gordon Madill, local Registrar of the Supreme Court.

Other officers of the Halton Law Association executive service president John Ford, of Oakville, secretary Murray Heasler of Oakville, treasurer William Sharp of Milton and directors William Hawken of Burlington, Donald G. Green of Burlington and Frederick Kelch of Oakville.

At the dinner following the annual meeting of the association, the retiring president,

Kenneth A. Langdon introduced Mr. Justice E. A. Richardson of the Supreme Court of Ontario who entertained the meeting by reminiscing of his days since 1921 at the Bar and as a Justice of the Supreme Court of Ontario.

KENNETH LANGDON
Past President

PRESENTATIONS

Robert Lush of Oakville made a presentation on behalf of the Association to Judge G. B. Greene welcoming him to Halton County. Judge Greene has been presiding in Provincial Court in Toronto for several years but recently was appointed to Halton County due to Judge Langdon devoting his full time to Family and Juvenile Court. Judge James R. Black accepted the presentation on behalf of Judge Greene who is still recuperating from illness.

The special guest of honour of the association was His Honour Judge Kenneth M. Langdon who has become the first full time Provincial Judge (Family Division) presiding at Family and Juvenile Court for the County of Halton. In appreciation of his twenty-seven years service to the judiciary and citizens of Halton County a presentation was made of a painting done by Mrs. E. Hoey of the Old Court House in Milton on behalf of the association, by Peter K. McWilliams, Q.C., Oakville.

ASHGROVE

Gives Shopping Hints To Ashgrove Institute

The Women's Institute met for their February meeting on the afternoon of the 17 at the new home of Mr. and Mrs. Milton Bird on Maple Avenue West in Georgetown with a large attendance of ladies and some visitors. President Mrs. Chas. Austin opened with a witty poem on Smiles. Secretary Mrs. Fred Nurse read last month's minutes and called the roll which was 'A homemaking trick, quick and slick,' and some helpful and interesting ones were given.

It was announced that the summary day for the quilts would be March 10 in Hillcrest church. All were in favour of still being a member of the Children's Aid Society and paying our fee. The delegate was chosen to attend the convention in Guelph end of April. Mrs. Hector Bird reported on the birthday party held at the Manor in January. Mrs. Gordon Wingfield reported on the needy family the W. I. assisted at Christmas, also read thankyou notes from shut-ins in our community who received fruit baskets for Christmas. Mrs. Vern Pickett gave the financial report on the euchre held recently.

The program was then turned over to Mrs. Wilbert Cleave who said as this was the Home Economics and Health meeting it deals with all phases of homemakers life. The motto, "More women would be better homemakers if they were not so busy keeping house" was given by Mrs. Frank Barnes. Mrs. C.B. Dick gave current events. Two delightful piano solos were played by Susan Alexander.

Mrs. Milton Bird exhibited the quilt top the ladies of the course are making and also the cushions already made. Mrs. Bob Alexander then spoke on Price Increases and some very helpful hints and ideas when shopping. She advised everyone to make a shopping list before leaving home; curb impulse buying; have a budget and stick with it; leave children at home and let mother do the buying; don't shop when too tired or in a big hurry; beware of sale days and always buy brand names you are sure of.

Mrs. Hector Bird conducted a contest. Mrs. Harvey Nurse gave the courtesies and meeting closed with a social hour.

Mr. and Mrs. George C. Wilson and their cousins Mr. and Mrs. Earl Wilson of Norval have returned from a two week trip down south. They visited Tampa, St. Petersburg, and Fort Lauderdale and came home by Washington.

We all say happy birthday to Mrs. R. J. Graham and Miss

ENCIRCLE THE GLOBE

Georgetown Women In World Prayer Day

Once again, a circle of prayer, bands the world as women of all countries gather to offer prayer as a witness to God's sustaining power. World Day of Prayer, with its theme for 1970, "Take Courage" will be celebrated on March 6 in Georgetown at St. Andrew's United Church, Sinclair Ave.

Taking part will be women from seven churches who take turns hosting the service so that all may have a share in the planning.

TAKE COURAGE

The speaker on the theme "Take Courage" this year will be Mrs. Connie Johnston, wife of the minister of St. Andrew's, Rev. Kelvin Johnston.

The World Day of Prayer, somehow, just happened. It was a beautiful growing sort of miracle.

Services were held in Asia before Europe and people as they travelled spread the word, and wherever it was heard, people responded until now it is held in 150 countries and Doris Pickett on their special day March 3 and wish them many more.

— Mrs. J. Bellbody

The offering they make on this day will be used to further such a variety of work as Cardinal Leger's Leper Colony, books for theological students in Egypt, Memorial Library in Hong Kong, a hospital in Nepal, the work of the blind in New York City medical aid in Viet Nam, religious material for retarded teenagers and the Student Christian Movement in Canada.

ENCIRCLE WORLD

Anyone who has not participated in a World Day of Prayer service cannot appreciate the feeling of oneness that engenders as you realize that this day opened with the service being held in the Tongo Islands and will continue all day to encircle our world. Women pray and give together.
