

FASHIONS THAT GO TO THEIR HEADS

At left Mrs. Geraldine Murphy and Mrs. Marjory Glover, sporting two of the new spring head-dresses admire a third during the St. Andrew's United Church UCW hat show. The show, held March 6th, drew a large attendance to view the decorative head pieces from Silhouette Fashions in Burlington.

Bottom left, Mrs. Laverne Ryder and Carol Evans, check a couple of chic styles in the mirror. They, plus Mrs. Murphy, Mrs. Glover, Mrs. Carol Cutting, Mrs. Margaret Rennick, Miss Janice Martin of the UCW and Junior UCW modelled the hats.

Below, Mrs. Kroes of the Silhouette shop, in a rose garden soufflé suggests a bright paid number for Carol Evans. Members of the audience enjoyed desserts and tea and coffee served by Mrs. Connie Johnston and Mrs. Florence Baker. Mrs. Betty Sutton was the show convener with co-conveners Mrs. Doris Allworth, Mrs. Linda Hutchins, and Mrs. Barbara Munro.

up in her home. It was a large quilt, but with the help of many it was taken out of the frames before the weekend. The Trueman family, have as their guests Mr. and Mrs. A. J. Luke who are from Hong Kong, China. The Luke's who are cousins of Mrs. Trueman arrived over the weekend and will be spending several weeks here in Ontario. They also hope to spend some time touring the United States. Mr. Luke is a policeman with the Hong Kong police force. Congratulations to two well known citizens. Mrs. Elaine Sales and Mr. Norman Sinclair. They have been successful in their exams and are fully qualified to sell real estate. Mrs. Sales has joined the staff of Mann Martell Realtors and Mr. Sinclair will represent Halton and Peel Trust & Savings Co. — Mrs. Winifred Smith

Active, Bright, Grandmother Dies at Age Hundred and Three

Mr. and Mrs. Reg French were in Guelph last week where they attended the funeral of Reg's grandmother Mrs. C. French who passed away on Thursday, Mrs. French was 103 years old. Up until a few years ago, when she was almost 100 she looked after her large home in Guelph and entertained her many friends, grandchildren and great-grandchildren who loved her dearly. About a year ago she suffered a stroke and was unable to speak but remained bright to the end.

Mrs. Dan Campbell, of London spent a few days last week with Mr. and Mrs. Reg French and family.

Heavy Winter Flood Warning

A lengthy flood warning was read to Esqueving council, from George Kerr, Minister of Energy and Resources, Monday night.

The letter urged emergency plans and equipment be readied now, in view of the heavy winter snows. He suggested river watchers be selected, and concluded by giving a list of people to contact in case of emergency.

Visitors over the weekend at Mrs. Frank Smith on Wednesday, March 4. Despite the bad weather there were 9 members and one visitor present. The roll call was answered by each telling of a book they had read and naming its author. Most of the quilted articles were handed in, also many things for the penny sale which will be sponsored along with a euclyre later this month. President announced that the Community Centre Board had been contacted and that they would accept with gratitude the gift of a quilt from the W. I. The Canadian flag will have a place of honour in the community centre. The theme for the meeting was education. Convener and spoke on the words, 'faith, hope and courage' and her message was very inspiring. Mrs. Norman Sinclair, accompanied Mrs. E. McLean gave a splendid solo.

A car load of Churchill ladies met with the Ballinafad ladies at the United Church on Friday afternoon for the World Day of Prayer service. Mrs. Ernest McEnery was organist for the afternoon. Mrs. Elwood Snow was the Key woman. The World Theme was 'Take Courage'. Mrs. Wallace Swackhamer was guest speaker and spoke on the words, 'faith, hope and courage' and her message was very inspiring. Mrs. Norman Sinclair, accompanied Mrs. E. McLean gave a splendid solo. Mrs. Robert Kerr, favoured Mrs. Jesse McEnery read an article from the Northern Lights, a magazine published by the Northern Ontario Women's Institute. As an ending to the program many told an amusing Irish joke. As this is the last month of the W.I. year a nominating committee was appointed. The annual meeting will be a pot luck dinner at the home of Mrs. Given. Mrs. Jamieson assisted the hostess in serving lunch and a social time was enjoyed.

Jean Shortill had a few of her young friends in on Thursday, the occasion being her birthday.

Mrs. Rick Sales had open house last week for members of the UCW and some of their friends when a quilt was set
