Decide Winners for Renholm Trophy

Competitive curling for the Renholm Trophy climaxed last week with the rink of skip Bunny Moore, Floria McNally, Jeanine Ellis, and Camille Morgan winning the big silverware.

Winners were determined in a round robin final last Tuesday at North Halton Curling Club involving the top eight teams.

The rink of Irene Curry, Jean Mackenzie, Ada Gibb, and Jean Brander, was runner-up in A section and captured the Carborad Tire Company Trophy.

B WINNERS

Mabel Sanderson, Mary-Rand Betty Hull, and Belle Garbutt won B Section, beating out runners up Doris Binkley, Edna Malcolm, Ev Wingrove and Hilda Earle.

Consolation lucky draws were shared by: Maree Paris, Ev Patterson, Marj Allan, Lena Burns, Edna Murray, Toots Burns, and Marion Burns.

Legion Curlers Assemble for National Spie!

The Trenton rink skipped by Earl Jesse which won the Legion's provincial curling finals at the North Halton Curling Club in Georgetown two weeks ago will be aiming at National honours March 16th in Prince George, B.C.

Ten provincial champions will assemble there for the showdown.

KNOCKED OUT

With Jesse on the Ontario team are Hee McIntosh, Carl Lacroix, and Gord Carrol.

Last year's National championship winners, Westy Westmore's rink from Calgary, was eliminated in zone finals this year. Last year's runners-up in the national, Harvey Chappel and rink from Georgetown, was eliminated in provincial competition.

MERCHANTS OUT OF JR. PLAYOFFS

Milton Merchants have been eliminated from the Suburban Junior C playoffs.

The Merchants were beaten 10-4 by Streetsville Derbys Friday night to bow out of the semi-finals. They won only one game of the best of seven series.

Derbys will play Newmarket Raiders in the finals.

Tanhardt Adds Laurels Hamilton Kennel Show

Hamilton Kennel Club sanctioned show at Ancaster, Sunday, produced some more laurels for Tanhardt kennel German Shepherds. Tanhardt Kennel is operated by Miss Laura Treble, at R. R. 1, Georgetown.

Tanhardt's Windy went best of breed and best Canadian breed in show; Tanhardt's X-tra Special Candy was first junior puppy, female; and Tanhardt's Yogi Bear was third puppy, male. Candy is owned by Mr. and Mrs. Bill Oates of Georgetown.

This year the dog show has been shifted from the Coliseum to the Queen Elizabeth building.

AT SPORTSMEN'S SHOW

Five Tanhardt Kennel German Shepherds, two belonging to Miss Treble, one from town, and two belonging to Brampton owners, will be in competitions at the Sportsmen's Show which starts this weekend in the CNE grounds.

FORMS DISTRIBUTED

Eighty Sign Up First Day Expect Bumper Soccer Crop

by George Duncan and Jim Lindley
Soccer registration opened at the Georgetown Legion Hall on Saturday with over 80 boys registering for the various age groups. This is a 60 per cent increase over last year's opening day registration and augers well for the coming season.

Registration will not be allowed at the high school this season and therefore boys should ensure that they register on one of the next two Saturdays at the Legion. Registration forms have been distributed to most schools in town.

GENERAL MEETING

Will coaches and managers please note a change in the date of the next regular meeting to Thursday, March 26th, 1970 at the Halton and Peel Trust building, Main St. N. at 7:30 p.m. A general meeting of the Georgetown Recreation committee will be held at Cedarvale on the 17th of March at 7:30 p.m. and any interested member of the GMSA is invited to attend.

GOOD COMPETITION

This season, Atom, Mosquito

and Bantam teams will be entered in the Halton and Peel Minor Soccer League and with teams entered from Acton, Bronte, Milton, Oakville, and Streetsville and possibly Brampton and Markham. This promises to be very good competition this year.

Don't forget the Referee's training course and examination this Sunday at Cedarvale.

Two Qualify for Bowling Tourney

Central Ontario Bowlers Association has completed their 240 average and under tournament at Oakville. Several local bowlers who had qualified took part.

Pat Barber selected a writing lamp for her prize. Pat Jepson a set of four candy dishes while Nadine Bradley a Braun Travel Toothbrush.

Pat Barber and Elsie Edmondson also qualified to enter Central Ontario Bowlers Association championship of champions tournament to be held in Bramalea on May 31.
