

Branch Activities Oriented To Sports in Busy Week-End

by Ralph Hawes

Sports, sports and more sports seems to be the most prominent thing at the Branch and in this column this week.

Saturday Morning Kid Hockey supporters, turned out in abundance last Saturday to encourage their favourite team participating in the annual Four-Town Tournament.

Teams were Fergus, Acton, Orangeville and Georgetown. Georgetown was the host club this year.

The Legion teams proved themselves by subduing all opposition.

The Georgetown Novice team defeated Acton 5-1, Fergus 10-0, and in the finals, squeaked out Orangeville by 4 goals to 3.

In the PeeWee series, Georgetown again came out on top by winning over Acton by 6 goals to 1, and Fergus by 9-1, the Bantams overcame Fergus 12-1, Orangeville 6-2 and Acton in the finals 6-4. The local Midgets won the championship game over Orangeville by a score of 6-3.

In the consolation series, it was Acton Novice 11 Fergus 0, Acton PeeWee's 4, Orangeville 5, Fergus Bantam 0 Orangeville 11.

The tournament which commenced at 8 a.m. through until after 9 p.m. was well attended by fans, the evening games were witnessed by over 800 spectators.

The ladies of the Branch Auxiliary looked after the inner man of the youthful hockey players, who kept the ladies busy from 11 a.m. until the last of the beef stew was consumed at 1:15 p.m. The winner of the clock radio was Paul Landon, Fergus, for the boys who sold most tickets for the draw there was a Timex wrist watch, Richard Hewitt, Georgetown Ricky Baginski Acton, Dave Graham Fergus and Dan Riddell, Orangeville were the recipients of the watches.

The ladies 5 pin bowling teams were away to Oakville on Saturday competing in regional bowling, 52 teams competed, Georgetown's teams were teams A Jean Reid, Peg Harley, Audrey Weir, Roma Timpon, Jan Emmerson and Flo Carswell, 'B' team Ann Nicholson, Reta Rudiger, Freda Handy, Hazel Dumper, Doris McCartney and Joan Archibald. Goddess Fortuna did not follow the Branch Ladies, however, she must have been there for North Toronto were first with 3348 with Brantford a close second with 3314, Brantford won the high triple 768 and high single 553, all was not lost for the Branch ladies, Flo Carswell and Roma Timpon returned to town each bearing a door prize.

Most ladies of 120 Auxiliary know or have heard of Stella Allen, of Oakville Auxiliary who was indisposed for several months. Stella wishes to thank the ladies of Zone B7 for kindness, flowers and cards which she has gratefully received during her illness. She hopes to be back competing in Zone Sports in the near future.

More on sports, the men were also bowling last Saturday, George Nurse, Don Wilkes, Jack Timpon, Bob Nicholson, Stan Swan and Brad Little, were guests at Welland, Branch 120 team were flying, at the outset they were 300 pins ahead, but somewhere along the line, to quote George, they fell apart. The 120 team were leading up to the last two games, however, Welland were first, followed by Thorold, Brampton, Welland and Georgetown in that order. Welland moves up to provincial competition, Don Wilkes also qualifies for provincial with his high triple 799.

Eighteen teams competed, Georgetown's team were quite disappointed for although Welland has a new Branch, none of the visiting teams had the opportunity to see it. Prizes were presented at the Bowling Alley and then home.

What, more sports? This time it's bridge not a structure across a river, not the bit that sticks up above the deck of a ship, where the captains wander around, this is a card game, provincial bridge. Branch 120's team qualified to enter provincial contest some weeks ago at district bridge.

Jim and George Sargent, along with Walter Blehn and Tommy Warnes, represented Branch 120 at Peterborough. We understand competition was keen, so much so that 3 teams tied for first place, Sudbury, Peterborough and Oshawa will play off for first spot, Chatham followed with George town right behind them, 20 teams enjoyed good hospitality at Peterborough branch at the completion of the competition.

A few more words on sports next Saturday the Tykes Hockey Tournament will be held in Georgetown. David Bowman and his stew makers with an odd welshman, here and there will be on hand to slosh the gravy around a bit. Dave is catering for over two hundred wee hockey players. Last Saturday a draw was organized at the Branch to help finance the journey. F. Garbutt, B. Collins, J. Gaudie, and R. Rudiger, won prizes as a result of the draw, which we understand was highly successful moneywise.

Still on Dave Bowman, he would have you know that provincial service officer Clare Wall will be on hand at the Branch Monday, March 30, at 2 p.m. Clare will be there to assist and answer questions pertaining to DVA pensions, etc.

Is a dart shoot sport, it's doubtful, however, the winners last week were B. Hill, R. Wiggins, J. Garbutt, W. Hamilton, B. Lorusso, D. McCartney, R. Wiggins, L. Boyd, M. Russell.

Car club draw: Dr. Roy Smith, F. Tracey, J. Burns, M. Tuck, C. Soper.

Saturday night dance was not over-crowded but those there enjoyed themselves.

Bob and Cory will be playing this Saturday, come early and then you may be sure of a seat.

Sixty members of 756 Legion Squadron Royal Canadian (Air) Cadets left early Saturday morning for Canadian Forces Base, Downsview. By 9 a.m. the Cadets had arrived at the big base and were split into groups of nine. Their names were placed on a manifest, and they boarded a Canadian Forces Otter aircraft, and shortly after were in the air. Many Cadets saw Georgetown from the air for the first time, while others were taken on flights to the Oakville, Port Credit area.

After all the Cadets had flown, they were taken to the combined mess for noon lunch, which they all enjoyed.

It was an excellent day for the flight, bright and sunny with good visibility. For many of the Cadets it was their first ride in an aircraft and they were thrilled. During the flight each Cadet had a chance to sit in the co-pilot's seat, and to get the feel of the controls, and to talk with the pilot and ask him any questions.

In keeping with the special events and industrial tours as much as possible, Cadets of 756 Legion Sqdn. will be taken on a tour of the Ford plant at Oakville on Thursday evening, March 12.

The tour will start at the plant at 7:30 and last about one hour. This is one of several tours that the Cadets have been taken on this year, and will be rounding out the schedule in April with a tour of Air Canada.

"Night Out with Boys?" Much More

Georgetown Rotary has a 15th Birthday

Although Rotary International celebrates its 65th anniversary this year, it was not represented in Georgetown until January 12, 1955, when a group of interested business and professional men met at the McGibbon Hotel to organize a local club.

Charter night was Monday, March 7, 1955 with John A. Gunn installed as the first president of the Rotary club of Georgetown, with a membership of 24. Other club officers and members were as follows:

Vice president, John R. Barber; secretary, Alec Reader; treasurer, Robert Burke; Sgt. at Arms, Stan Hutchison; directors, James Ritchie, Lorne Peters. Members Bud Bishop, Bob Burns; Joe Chamberlain; Wheldon Emmerson; Bill Hamilton; Ralph Hawes; Harold Hutchinson; Ern Hyde; George Slivill; Bob Jones; John D. Kelly; E. V. MacCormack; Maurice Manderson; Fred Maveal; John Muckart; Bob McColgan; Ken Nash.

As the oldest service club organization, Rotary represents to many people much (depending on their viewpoint) of that which is good or bad, sincere or hypocritical, ineffective or worthwhile in service clubs. To some, such a club means a regular luncheon meeting with a speaker, a night out with the 'boys' or a weekly version of a Shriner's annual convention.

'Babbitt,' Sinclair Lewis' famous novel of the 20s, satirized Rotary as representatives of middle-class businessmen bound by all the platitudes and conventions of society with regard to politics, morality, religion, business, love and the home, singing their songs, slapping each other on the back. To some commentators on the modern scene, Rotary is still synonymous with such a concept.

Superficially, Rotary does appear to fit this impression. It does make a point of stressing fellowship, of sing songs to make people come out of their shells (even if they can't sing or hate singing), of calling people by their first names on first meeting them.

However, the object of Rotary is to encourage and foster the ideal of service. Its members represent many vocations. In fact, to maintain the broad community representation, membership is usually limited to two from any one business, trade or profession.

Weekly attendance is stressed.

ESQUESING COUNCIL BRIEFS

Peter Bowman, opponent of the dragstrip in the north end of the township, asked Esquising council Monday to consider a by-law licensing all race tracks similar to one recently passed by Erin.

At the same meeting:

Council appointed Tom Van Sickle to Committee of Adjustments to replace Don Matthews who is moving out of the township.

The Clerk was asked to prepare a by-law authorizing the charging of a fee to use the dump. The amounts were not discussed.

A letter to council informed them that the Halton County Health Unit approved the washroom installations, and food concessions planned at Halton Raceway, and as far as they were concerned had no objection to issuing a building permit.

There is no summer recess. A member missing four meetings in a row can be, and usually is, asked to resign. 60% of meetings must be attended. To help many of those who must be absent on occasion attendance at meetings of other Rotary clubs may be used to 'make up'. These attendance stipulations help to maintain members' interest and to discourage the casual 'joiner.'

A club's endeavours include, naturally, community service. One of the main, continuing projects of the Georgetown club is the annual Easter Seal Campaign, which, through the local public's donations, finances the administration of aid to crippled children in the area. Funds remaining at the end of the year are turned over to the central committee.

Over $22,000 has been raised since the club began.

YOUTH TOO

The club also attempts to assist community youth in other ways. It has sponsored juvenile and midget hockey teams, chartered teen dances, contributed money to help build the Community Swimming Pool, organized a high school student work week to help businesses and commercial students get acquainted. It has financed students' visits to Ottawa (adventure in citizenship) and helped students to attend student seminars. It has worked with the local police in safety campaigns in the public schools. Exchange visits of local high school students with those in the US were also organized.

The club has even entered the entertainment field. For many years, the annual Minstrel and Variety Shows were a highlight of the winter season, featuring many local artists. More recently the famous Don Cossack choir was brought in for a concert at the Riviera.

Another feature of the club's year is its annual dinner in honour of the senior citizens of the district, held just before Christmas.

TRULY INTERNATIONAL

Although Rotary began in the United States, which remains the centre of Rotary activity, it became international on a North American basis in 1910 with the chartering of the Winnipeg club. It has become

Entomology Talk For Naturalists

Ron Michaels spoke and showed slides on entomology to members of Georgetown and District Naturalists Club at their February meeting in First Baptist Church.
