Community Club Women To Canvass for Cancer

Members of the North Trafalgar Community Club met at the home of Mrs. Alec Watson on the 6th Line, on Wednesday evening, March 11. Mrs. Allan Ross, the president, presided for the meeting which was opened with the club ode. The roll call was answered by nineteen members and one visitor. It was decided that the members would canvass for the Cancer Society again this year. Cancer kits were handed out to the members who will be doing the canvassing. Mrs. Anderson May and Mrs. Maybelle May were in charge of the program. An article which was written by True Davidson on a 2 week trip to South America was read by Mrs. Anderson May and also an article on 'Advice to the Young' which was very informative. Two contests were conducted by Mrs. Maybelle May which were won by Mrs. Lloyd Marshall, Mrs. Alec Watson and Mrs. Martin Godt, for the first one and the second one was won by Mrs. Allan Ross. The next meeting will be held at the home of Mrs. John Hannah on the 8th Line on Wednesday evening, April 8. Lunch was served by the hostess and a social hour enjoyed. Mrs. Mary Leslie and Mrs. Vera Williamson will be in charge of the program for April.

Members: high Mrs. Harvey Dunn and Harry Davis; low Mrs. Jim Hamilton and Roy Wilson; the door prize was won by Jim Hamilton. Lunch was served and a social hour enjoyed. Their next euchre will be on Wednesday night, April 8. The regular meeting of the Eden United Church Women was held at the home of Mrs. Bill Hill of the 9th Line, on Monday evening, March 9. Mrs. Leslie Rutledge presided for the meeting. Arrangements were made to hold a tea and bake sale at the church on Wednesday afternoon, March 29; at 2 p.m. The guest speaker will be Rev. Peter Tucker of Rockwood. A donation was made to Miss Audrey Lawrence, a missionary teacher in Africa, to help buy an encyclopedia. The devotional period was in charge of Mrs. Lloyd Marshall who used as her topic 'Prayer'. The study book 'Indians in Canada' was taken by Mrs. John Cordingley. Two charter members (50 years), Mrs. Garnet Hamilton and Mrs. Elmer White were presented with UCW life memberships and pins by Mrs. Elmer May and Mrs. Wilmer Mason in recognition of their excellent work for the UCW. Mrs. Elmer May was the recipient of a long service pin presented by Mrs. Elmer Waite and Mrs. Garnet Hamilton for recognition of willingness and excellent work for the UCW. A delicious lunch was served by the hostess which included birthday cakes for the two charter members. Following lunch Mrs. Elmer May was presented with a flower vase by Mrs. Elmer Waite and Mrs. Paul May was presented with a bud vase in memory of their good times with the UCW.

Tuesday, March 10, was attended by 200 ladies. Each Institute gave a short report and read a poem concerning their quilting bees. There were many beautiful quilts, cushions, chair pads and pot holders of several different patterns. Mrs. Bannister showed several coloured slides of quilts made in some of the older patterns.

Rev. Keith Hawkes was assisted on Sunday by Bob Robson at the local churches. Bob spoke on the Ins and Outs and also gave the scripture lesson, Leviticus 16, 9-10 and 20-21.

Our Renault 16TS:
There are slower airplanes.

A Renault 16TS is like no other performance car within $2,000 of its price. It not only goes like the devil, it is incredibly comfortable. The hemi-head weber-carbed engine is incredibly smooth, as smooth as the action of the 16TS's electric windows. The foam bucket seats adjust 7 ways. The back seat is removable, and the vertically opening rear door makes the 16TS that rarest of machines, the sports-wagon. Everything, from electric tach, power brakes, padded wheel, rear window defroster and posh carpeting is standard on the Renault 16TS. A very impressive package. Fast outside. Soft inside. Come see us today and test fly a Renault 16TS.
