NORVAL COUPLE STAR IN NEW MOON

Brampton Music Society's production of 'New Moon' which concluded a week's run in the auditorium of Peel Secondary School Friday night had a local flavour. In costume above are John and Ria Wilson of Norval who had the lead roles of Philippe and Marianna.

On Tuesday afternoon, Mar. 17th the Public Relations meeting of the Women's Institute was held at the home of Mrs. Robert Cunningham with 35 ladies and three children present. President Mrs. Chas. Austin opened meeting by having everyone sing "When Irish Eyes Are Smiling" and then repeating the Mary Stewart Collect.

Secretary Mrs. Fred Nurse read last month's minutes and called the roll which was answered with "A Woman of the Hour and what she is doing for her Country." Mrs. Wilfrid Bird reported for the flower committee and also for the Jr. Farmers' Banquet. Several items of business were discussed and then the program was in charge of Mrs. J. H. Hunter who gave the Ten Commandments of Human Relations and then everyone sang "Waltzing Matilda".

She then introduced Mr. Paul Armstrong of town who told us that three years ago he, along with five other businessmen, had been chosen by the Rotarians for a trip to Australia. They spent two months there and took beautiful colored pictures which he showed on the screen and gave a commentary of each one. They have good universities, boys' schools, boat-riding is a popular sport with Frisbees and Parades and whole fields of flowers. Victoria and Sydney are heavily populated. Australians obviously are a happy race of people.

The motto was given by Mrs. John Ruddle "The public eye is insatiable. Be ready to have your picture taken." Current events were by Mrs. Vern Picket. Following this Mrs. George Wilson presented small gifts to the two quilt leaders, Mrs. Milton Bird and Mrs. Frank Ruddle who did such a splendid job of leading the project for the handmade quilt this past winter. Mrs. J. M. Wickson and Mrs. C. B. Dick judged the baking with Mrs. John Bird's jellyroll placing first and Mrs. Wilbert Cleav's tart second. A contest of members was held with Mrs. Clayton Wilson and Mrs. James McPhail as the winners. Lunch and a social hour followed.

The Senior choir of Hillcrest United Church sponsored a bowling party at the Georgetown Bowls on Wednesday evening, March 18th at nine o'clock. Thirty six players enjoyed the games and winners were ladies, Mrs. Doug Peddie and Mrs. John McNabb; gents, Ralph Cunningham and Doug Peddie; Consolation: Mrs. Vern Picket and James Carney. All went back to the church for refreshments and a Fellowship Hour.

Last week Miss Lois McNabb had an exchange student from Quebec visiting in her home: "Etienne Gagnon" with eight other students and their teachers. E. Eldon Hebert from St. Rose du Degeles, Quebec, have had the times of their lives in these parts learning and visiting around. Thursday evening, Lois and her guest and other students and hosts boarded the train back to St. Rose du Degeles where they will spend their week of school holiday.

Farrell was subjected to obscenities by the pair while women and children were standing on the street taking it all in. Judge Graham rejected a defence argument that there was no disturbance because no one was inconvenienced by the incident.

LET'S PLAY BRIDGE

BY BILL COATS

The following hand occurred at the Acton Bridge Club last week. One pair managed to bid and make slam in hearts. It requires good bidding and good play to do both of these. East dealt with North-South vulnerable.

NORTH
S-J 8 6
H-5 5 3 2
D-7
C-A Q 6 5 3

WEST
S-K 9 5 3 S-10 7
H-J 10 H-7 4
D-10 9 6 D-K Q 8 5 4 3
C-J 10 9 8 C-K 7 4

EAST
S-A Q 4 2
H-A K Q 9 8
D-A J 2
C-2

The bidding:
WEST SOUTH WEST NORTH
Pass 1 H Pass 2 H
Pass 3 S Pass 4 C
Pass 4 D Pass 5 D
Pass 6 H All Pass

Opening lead — jack of clubs.

South's hand, in spite of its 20 high card points, does not measure up to an opening demand bid. Once North replies, South is sure of game and makes a jump shift in spades. This bid is absolutely forcing so South knows that North cannot pass.
