

SILVERWOOD

Euchre Party Marks W.I. 19th Birthday

Silverwood Women's Institute's 19th birthday was celebrated with a very successful euchre party in Esqueving Community hall, Stewarttown on March 31. There were 21 tables of eager euchre players. George Burt and Mrs. W. Stringer won first prizes and Hugh Bass and Mrs. Crawford seconds. The birthday prize went to Frank Ruddell. In a draw for a maple leaf quilt, Mrs. Anne McLaughlin, Brampton, was the winner.

Mrs. Clare Wilson spent a few days at Hopetown recently. Stephen and Glen Duncan visited with their grandparents this past week.

Mrs. Mulr and Mr. Marchington are home after a few days in Georgetown hospital. Get well wishes of the community to both.

Robins arrived at Silverwood on March 22. Hope they have their galoshes, etc.

The barometer pressure was the lowest on April 2 in over 25 years in the Georgetown area.

ONE HAPPY (GROWING) FAMILY

Linda Nicholls, standing behind Pat Joynes, left, Bob Lee, and Isla McConnell are part of the cast of the Georgetown Little Theatre's next presentation 'Never Too Late' which starts a three night run at Centennial Public school April 16th. The popular comedy shows the reaction of a middle aged couple faced with parenthood late in life. Linda plays the married daughter, Pat the expectant mom, Bob the expectant dad, and Isla, a friend of the family.
