In Memoriam

DONALDSON — In loving memory of a dear mother and mother-in-law, Mrs. Percy Donaldson who died June 9, 1967.

True was her heart, her action kind, Her life was a pattern to those left behind. God knows best for reasons divine. But memories last for all time. Ever remembered by Raetta and Bob.

LOUD - SWAN — In loving memory of a dear mother Esther E. Loud who passed to rest June 15, 1952 and a sister Dorothy M. Swan, September 28, 1954.

We often think of bygone days When we were all together, The family chain is broken now But memory lives forever To us they have not gone away Nor have they travelled far Just entered God's eternal home And left the gate ajar.

— Lovingly remembered by her daughters and sisters.

RYALL — In loving memory of a dear mother and grandmother Helen Ryall, who passed away June 14, 1968.

In our hearts your memory lingers Always tender, fond and true There's not a day dear mother We do not think of you.

— Ever remembered by Orlo Maxine, Judith, Michael and families.

SMITH — In loving memory of our dear mother, Edith L. Smith, who passed away June 11, 1969.

— Sadly missed by Marion and Joe.

Want OPP Enforce Municipal By-Laws

A letter from OPP Commissioner Eric Silk told Esquusing council that the OPP does not enforce municipal by-laws, and that it is the responsibility of the municipality to supply their own enforcement officer.

Clerk Delmar French had written the Commissioner in an attempt to clear up the problem.

At the same meeting a resolution from Nassagaweya, petitioning the Attorney General of Ontario to have the municipal by-laws enforced by the OPP was read. Esquusing council unanimously endorsed the resolution.

Car Passenger, Child Hurt in Separate Mishaps

Jose Manuel Herrera of Guelph suffered an injured left arm when the car he was riding in skidded out of control in loose gravel, ploughed through a ditch, knocked over a hydro pole and scraped a tree.

The car, driven by Jose Treaglio of Guelph, was southbound on Main Street. The accident happened near the corner of No. 15 sideroad, Saturday night.

Seven year old Shelly Kristensen of 365 Guelph St. was treated for cuts and bruises to both arms after being knocked down by a car on Guelph St. near Hall Road, Thursday.

A police report said she ran into the path of a car driven by Harold Bawden of Brampton.

Bruce McNiven, 33 Victoria St., was the driver of a car which backed into a No Parking sign on Wesleyan St. Sunday and received $250 damage.

The underside, oil pan and transmission of a car driven by Brenda Lanuille of 80 Main Street North received damage totalling $200 when it hit a raised manhole cover on Maple Ave near Parkview Thursday night.

CARDS OF THANKS

ANTHONY — We would like to thank all our neighbours, friends and family for their thoughtfulness and many kindnesses during the loss of a husband and father. Special thank you to doctors and staff at the Georgetown and district Hospital during the many times he was a patient and to Rev. Johnston for his comforting words, also to Jim Jones for his kindness. — Ethel Anthony and Eleanor Cunningham.

HUNTER — My sincere thanks to my neighbours and friends for their kindness while I was a patient in Georgetown Hospital and since coming home. For their cards, flowers, fruit, gifts and visits. Also to Dr. Macintosh, Kennedy and Richards; to nurses, candy strippers and staff on Ward B; to the Georgetown Ambulance service for their quick response. — May Hunter.

RED CROSS — The members of the committee of the Georgetown and District Red Cross Blood Donor Clinic would like to sincerely thank all blood donors, Dr. Boyd Hoddinott and everyone who helped before and during the clinic. Their response and efforts were greatly appreciated. Special thanks to Karen and Phil Sykes for their musical entertainment. Mrs. C. A. Thompson Blood donor clinic chairman
