

DISCARDS AID SERVICE WORK
AUCTION ACTION

Auction sales are fun — and so are bath tubs, as Donald Rice discovers at the annual Georgetown Rotary Club auction sale in the Memorial Arena, Monday, June 8th. The sponsoring club will clear about $1,000 as a result of the sale. Proceeds will go into the general fund for community work.

It really works as David Terzwell discovers in quick test of this old foot powered sewing machine. The Rotary sale included a number of larger items such as two sewing machines, a stove, refrigerator and a number of beds.

An unidentified tot is caught sneaking out of the crowd to catch 40 winks on an inviting double bed. The sale, conducted by auctioneer Alf Spence, lasted from 7 p.m. until past 10.30 with almost all of the articles collected over the past four months being sold. Bob McDonald was in charge of the auction committee and Bob Gougeon was responsible for promotion.
