Outhit Opponents, Errors Are Costly to Georgettes

Georgettes had too many thumbs, as they committed seven errors in dropping a 9-3 Halton Rural Ladies Softball league game to Hornby at Hornby Park Monday night.

Georgetown gals outhit the winners 12 to 9, but allowed Hornby to score a flock of unearned runs. Hornby's Gus Strickland belted two home runs and Georgetown's Georgia Lewis tripled.

Lois Reed was the winning pitcher and Eve Smith took the loss.

PITCHING DUEL

Georgettes and Glen Williams met in the league opener in Glen Williams last Thursday when Georgetown won a tight pitching duel 2-1. The seven-inning game took just 45 minutes to play.

Glen got just three hits off winner Eve Smith and Georgetown managed just four off loser Betty Stafford.

performer Margo Butler matched the opponents hurling in the 2nd, 4th and 5th.

In such a close duel, defensive moves made the difference. Even while fighting a losing battle Nancy Phillips and Sharon Barclay both played a brilliant defensive game at shortstop and pitcher respectively. For this they get the 2/3 the game star.

The balance of the game star award goes to newcomer Wendy From. Wendy is developing into an excellent catcher and all round team player. This young gal will be heard from many more times over the season.

Home runs for the winners came from Wendy From, Marilyn McMahon, and Margo Butler (2). For Superiors: Sharon Barclay and Joy Howat, 1 each. The standings begin next week.

Hole-in-One Almost Two

Aholein-one is a big thrill to a golfer at any time, but when it's scored in a tournament it's gravy.

John Paska, playing in the annual Varian Day competition at North Halton Golf and Country Club Thursday, aced the 105 yard par three ninth hole with a nine iron. He was in a foursome with Dave Uren, Gord Fendley and Peter McNair.

One more revolution by Uren's ball would have resulted in a fantastic double ace on the same hole. His tee shot stopped at the lip of the cup.
