

Lamb - Snow Church Wedding And Reception in Ballinafad

In a double ring ceremony in Ballinafad United Church on July 4, Dianne Sheila Snow and Allan Thomas Lamb were united in marriage in a ceremony at which Rev. Kelvin Johnston officiated.

Standards of white mums decorated the church and Miss Kathryn Sinclair was organist. The bride, who is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Ellwood Snow, R. R. 1 Georgetown, was given in marriage by her father. The groom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Lamb, Willowdale.

The bride wore a floor length gown of white peau de chamois with lace sleeves, featuring an empire waistline, and a floor length veil of illusion net with daisy trim. She carried a cascade bouquet of white shasta mums and tiny pinocchio mums with trailing ivy.

Miss June Boggan was maid of honour. Her sisters Nancy and Pam were bridesmaids. The three attendants wore sleeveless gowns of mint green peau de sole fashioned on empire lines with white daisy trim and white floral headpieces. They carried nosegays of white daisies with carnations tinted to match their gowns.

John Swallow, Mount Albert was groomsman. Brian Lamb Toronto, and Garry Snow, brothers of the groom and bride were ushers and Master Peter Snow was junior usher.

Afterwards, at a reception in the church basement, the bride's mother received wearing a printed green silk dress with bone coloured accessories and a corsage of yellow carnations.

The groom's mother who also received, was in yellow gown, white accessories and a corsage of mauve carnations.

Travelling to northern Ontario for their honeymoon, the bride changed to an orange crimplene dress, beige accessories and a corsage of cream symbidium orchids.

They are making their home in Toronto. The groom is employed with Airline Services, Malton. The bride is with the Workmen's Compensation Board.

The bride's aunt, Mrs. C. E. Snow, R. R. 1 was hostess at a shower and Mrs. Terry Witte, Thornhill, Mrs. Cathy Lamb, Willowdale and Mrs. Lois Webster, Thorncliffe Park, Toronto, each tendered a shower. The new Mrs. Lamb also received a presentation from the office staff at the Compensation Board.

Boulanger - Jeffrey Wedding Vows in Holy Cross Church

Mums and stephanolis decorated Holy Cross R.C. Church on June 6th for the marriage of Sheila Veronica Jeffrey, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. William Jeffrey, 9 Gairey Drive and Joseph Renald Boulanger, son of Mr. and Mrs. Herman Boulanger, 31 Beaver St., Glen Williams.

Father Gerald Craig officiated. Mrs. Robert Burke sang Ave Maria, Panis Angelicus, and Wedding Hymn, with Mr. J. Redmond playing organ accompaniment. Mr. Jeffrey gave his daughter in marriage in a double ring ceremony.

The bride was gowned in a full length crystal crepe sheath with a train forming a coat of effect, with a front yoke of heavy daisy pattern, and elbow length sleeves. The train was edged with a daisy motif and she wore a headpiece of matching daisy lace and seed pearls with a bouffant silk illusion veil. She carried a cascade of yellow sweetheart roses.

Miss Leslie Gillett was maid of honour and wore pale yellow polyester crepe with matching daisy trim. Bridesmaids Yvonne Holloway and Karen Pew were in mint green and flower girl Lisa Jeffrey, the bride's sister was similarly gowned to the maid of honour. They wore daisy chain headpieces and carried bouquets of pom daisies.

Joe Rossignol was groomsman. Ushers were Rejean Boulanger and Richard Jeffrey, brothers of the groom and the bride.

Receiving afterwards at Bramalea Community Centre, the bride's mother wore an American Beauty silk shantung matching dress and coat, a picture hat and white accessories and a corsage of white carnations. The groom's mother also received, wearing a blue lace matching coat and dress, white accessories and a corsage of pink roses.

For a honeymoon trip in western Ontario the bride wore a beige linen two piece dress, white accessories and a corsage of yellow sweetheart roses.

Guests attended from Quebec, Boston, Calgary, Toronto, Acton, Cookville and Georgetown.

Mr. and Mrs. Boulanger are living in Georgetown where he is employed with General Fireproofing. She is employed in Toronto in the accounting department of Royal Trust.

Prior to their marriage, the bride was feted at showers by Mrs. Leavitt, Mrs. Hegstrom, Miss G. Holloway, and Mrs. Rudick and a personal shower by Leslie Gillett. Mrs. Helen Eyer of Toronto gave a dinner party and presentation and the bride's co-workers made a presentation of china.
