

Upholsterers Hammered — Slip To Second Behind Mardells

Mary Cooper

JR. LEAGUE, JULY 21
MARDELL'S HAIR STYLES 17
KINETTE KRUISERS 15

Mardell's grabbed the League lead with their win over the Kruisers, displacing Georgetown Upholsterers, who have dropped their last two matches.

The Hair Stylis trailed the Kinettes the first inning, then tied up in 2nd, and ran ahead in the scoring right up to the 6th inning. A 6 run rally by the Kruisers put them back in the driver's seat by a slim 13-12 margin. Lead held through the 7th, but unfortunately for them, the last bat went to the Stylis.

Game star Diane Marshall made the difference as she belted out a triple with 3 on base and put the game on ice for her team. Diane spent her first night on the mound this year and did an excellent job.

Also turning in an excellent game for the winners was 3rd baseman Wendy Barrager, who tagged herself a grand slam home run. Single homers for Mardell's also went to Sandra Bratkin and Cathy Allen.

DAIRY QUEEN: 17
MURRAY MOTORS 6

The Queens appear to finally be hitting their stride, as the wins start coming their way. They lead this round from the opening swing.

Game star was Queen's 3rd baseman Denise Hatcher. Denise matched her sound defensive playing with a 4 for 4 batting record for the night.

Belting out home runs for the winners were: Charlene Milton 1, and Sue Mandarino, 2. Lynn Scarborough was the lone Motorman to be credited with homers in the game, and she lobbed out two beauties.

SUPERIOR FOODS: 28
GEORGETOWN UPHOLSTERY 5

This has to be classed as the trouncing of the night, as it was the soundest defeat that the Upholsterers have suffered this year.

The game started out one all in the first, but the Superior gals started connecting with that ball in the 2nd and collected a total of 17 runs. And when only their dust was seen.

Pam Bryan rated as the game star for Superior. She kicked the game off with a home run and added two more throughout the evening. Her performance at shortstop was also good. Shaaron Barclay, Superior's pitcher also tagged two long balls in the game.

Turning in the best performance for the Upholsterers was Debbie Given, 2nd baseman. Pitcher Marie Doucette hit the single home run for her team.

SHOPRITE 5c - $1.00—18
GEORGETOWN CYCLE & SPORTS 15

The game bounced from a Cyclists lead in the first, to a Shoprite lead in the 2nd, to a tie in the 3rd, to a Cyclists lead again in the 4th. But the 5th inning decided the outcome of this squeaker. Nine runs crossed the plate for Shoprite in this inning and the rally proved too much for the competitors to overcome.

Once again, Donna Evans rated as the game star. Donna is the steady pitcher for Shoprite, who usually turns in an excellent mound performance.

Home runs for the winners were hit by Rhonda Preston and Nancy Poulsen with one each. Barbara Ferris and Lynda Palm each hit one home run for the Cyclists.

W. F. HUNTER REALTORS 20
ZENITH TOOL & DIE 4

What was a relatively close game for 4 innings blew wide open in the 5th for the Hunters when they secured their lead, moving from a close 6-4 lead to a 11-4 lead.

The game star was starting pitcher Marilyn McMahon for Hunter's. Marilyn tagged three home runs, and had 7 straight hits, while pitching a good game for her team.

SENIOR LEAGUE JULY 23:
BLUE GIANT EQUIPMENT 20
YOUNG'S PHARMACY 4

It took Young's batters until the 4th inning, before one could successfully cross the plate to score in what turned in to their first loss of this season. The Giants were steady in their hitting as they had only 1 hitless inning against Young's pitcher Jan Inglis. Giants' hurler, Connie Allan and a tight field held Young's scoreless for the 1st 11 innings.

Game star was Giants second pitcher Dianne Fournier, who had a 3-0 batting record, including one home run. Her partner in pitching, Connie Allan also hit one homer and had a 4 for 4 batting record.

MAGNUSONS' INSURANCE 21
LEONE'S HAIR STYLES 16

This was a close match as Magnuson's had to play their best effort to come from behind, tie-up and eventually take the game away from Leone's. One bad inning, in which Leone's allowed Magnuson's to score 11 runs, changed the course of the match.

Players like Magnuson's catcher Janice Martineau, a real credit to their team and the League. Janice is one of those enthusiastic gals who has played in the League up through the juniors and generates fair play and good baseball throughout her team. In this game she rated as game star for her efforts. She cut off three Leone's runners at home plate making everyone cautious about running that last 55 feet.

Winning pitching honours were shared by Dianne Hennessey and Lynn McCreath and home runs by Laura Budnar and Cathy Doucette.

BARRAGER'S CLEANERS 30
CABLE JETS 8

The Cleaners grabbed a healthy lead from the start and never looked back. A near full turnout of players for Barrager's against a mere 8 for the Jets, and all their heavy hitters away, didn't add much to the spirits of the losers. It is hoped that when the peak of the holidays are over, the Jets will once again hit the competitive stride they displayed at the 1st of the year.

Winning pitchers were Kathy Oprea and Debbie Haines. Hitting homers for the Cleaners were Andrea Walsh and for the Cable Jets Cathy Burgoyne. Winning coach was Jim Cooper.

National Hockey League Refs to Play Norval Club

It's never happened before in fastball but Norval Mets will have to watch the high sticking, hooking and sparring and be careful of the off sides when they play Sunday.

NORVAL SECOND

The Glen moved into the tie for fourth place when they beat Hillsburgh 7-4 on Sunday. The other local club in the league, Norval Mets, have second place locked up and have a hand in the Glen's fate since they met Hillsburgh in their final game last night.
