Keep Non-Returnables For Collection Drive

Some concerned local Scouts and Guides are doing something about the disposable glass bottle, which since it doesn't rust away or decay, is a pollution factor that will stay around till the end of time.

They have asked 'The Herald' co-operation in urging the general public to save their non-returnables for a collection drive sometime in the early fall. Children particularly are asked to round up the disposable bottles and save them for the drive by some Scout and Guide companies.

BUY DISPOSABLES

A firm in Toronto has offered to buy non-returnable bottles for melting down.

Money raised will go to the Scouts and Guides treasuries.

Further information is available from Mrs. J. Collier, 146 Guelph Street and Guide Counsellor Mrs. Doreen Melcombe, 60 Langstone Crescent.
