

Residents Object, Want Road Remain in Village

No one in Lowville wants the Guelph Line to be rerouted around the village, Burlington reeve David Coons claimed last week at a meeting of Halton County council.

Burlington reeve Gordon Gallagher, county road chairman, and deputy reeve Coons parted company over controversial Line 'D' — a road widening project designed partly to reduce the sharp curve in the Guelph Line at Lowville.

On a majority vote county councillors decided to proceed with the plan, to the limit of the 1970 road budget.

GM'S NEW BABY

1971 VEGA 2300 Coupe
THE 1971 VEGA 2300 — named after the star 'Vega' — is the new little car from General Motors that "does everything well." It comes in a sturdy two-door sedan, sporty hatchback coupe, sleek kamback wagon and one passenger panel express truck. The 80-horsepower engine is 2,300 cubic centimeters (140 cubic inches) with overhead cam and die-cast, aluminum-alloy block. Compression ratio is 8 to 1. Lightweight and powerful, it is expected to deliver mileage comparable to any in its class. Wheelbase is only 97 inches and overall length is 169.7 inches, yet the Vega seats four comfortably. ville, reeve Gallagher focused on the village park "sometimes so crowded that extra police are called in."

In reply to his deputy reeve's spending point, Mr. Gallagher reassured Mr. Coons.

"There is not too much money in our road budget, not enough to pay for any serious construction this year. Our immediate concern is to acquire the necessary space for widening the road" he said.

Not persuaded, deputy reeve Coons made reference to two petitions questioning the overall expenditure.

"No one" he repeated, "in Lowville or Burlington wants the money spent."

DISPUTES LOGIC
Nassagaweya deputy reeve Gordon Agnew contributed a surprise one-liner to the Lowville road debate. "There was," he noted "as much logic in Mr. Coons' arguments as that of a pregnant woman claiming to be a virgin."

Deputy reeve Coon retorted icily that "this is not a fair comparison." Then he also resorted to a metaphor, adding, "That would be closing the barn door after the horse got out."

'CAN GET LOST'
Deputy reeve Coons asked

"Not to worry," Mr. Tyler served on the road committee equipped. "Just follow the Lowder chairman Gordon Gallagher road."

As Glider Pilot, Barb Knows 'Sounds of Silence'

"Free as a bird" is the phrase used by glider enthusiasts to describe the sensation as they float through the air, in their graceful bird-like planes.

This sensation is enjoyed by the 30 members of the Erin Soaring Society, on the 10th Line of Erin, close to Erin Village. Most weekends and some weekdays, they are out looking for "thermals" to keep them aloft longer than the next flyer.

The freedom, silence, and pollution free aspects of the sport are similar to water sailing, and usually the two sports water and air sailing appeal to the same type people.

The Society owns 3 gliders with 3 others being owned by members. They are towed aloft by a Super Cub owned and flown by Walter Keeler of Erin, who is Club chairman.

The club was started 4 years ago, with members coming from all walks of life. This is not just a man's sport five of the flying members are women, and more women members may be added if Barb Brotherton, local lady flyer has her way.

Last week Barb tried gliding for the first time, and enjoyed it immensely. She is now trying to interest "The
