

Lack-Lustre Contest as All-Stars Lose Match

Halt County Senior League all-stars spent six innings looking like a last place club Sunday afternoon.

By the time they straightened themselves out they were too far behind to catch up and

In contrast to last year's classic when the Halt County stars kept a crowd of over 1,000 in the park for 13 innings before edging Chicago Orioles 4-3.

The local stars got their only runs in the 6th and 8th innings after manager Garry Jeffries reached down to his bench to play his lesser lights.

Potent Slugger, Arbic Game Star

Former Georgetown Giant baseball star Dan Arbic, earned 'star of the game' honours in a recent Senior Inter-County game between Kitchener Panthers and Stratford Kravens with an outstanding performance at the plate.

In front of a crowd of 3698 fans, Arbic belted a base-loaded double over the centre fielder's head to give the Panthers a 4-3 victory.

He also picked up a double and a walk in his other three trips to the plate.

Arbic has become the Kitchener team's most potent

Hosted Mini-Tournament Town Club in Field Hockey League

Jim Powell and John Owen in the Georgetown vs. Hamilton match.

Where's the ball?

Georgetown fair grounds, which has been trampled by football, baseball, soccer players, and even jumper horses during the annual Expo — was stomped by the feet of a different breed Sunday — field hockey players taking part in a mini-tournament involving four teams.

Teams from Hamilton, Toronto, Bramalea and Georgetown combined to stage a very successful day of competitions with the Toronto Field Hockey Club, the senior side and founders of the game in Ontario, emerging the champions.

Bramalea was a close second while the new Georgetown club and Hamilton tied for third.

THREE GAMES EACH

Each team played three games and on a hot summer afternoon gave ample demonstration of the fitness of the team members.

For Georgetown, John Wickens at centre-half was the linch pin and kept the team together.

Bruce Murray played a fast, aggressive game at centre forward while Jim Powell and Al Sargent played safe defensive games and used their power to clear away any dangerous attacks.

The Georgetown club's intention now is to enter a team in the Ontario Fall League which starts in September. Anyone interested in joining the team is welcome at the Friday and Sunday evening practices.
