LEARN OPPOSITION TONIGHT . . . Five Town Teams Enter Ontario Baseball Playoffs

With the league schedule behind them, all Georgetown teams are preparing this week for the Ontario Baseball playoffs. Each team will learn their opposition on Thursday night, with all teams scheduled for action starting this weekend.

The Tykes, PeeWees, Bantam and Midgets all fielded first year teams this year and all took it on the chin, missing the Halton County playoffs by one or two points each. The Juveniles entered Halton County Junior playoffs and provided Oakville with the championship when Georgetown took on Burlington in the opening game and forced Burlington to use up their pitching staff to squeak by Georgetown 8 - 6. Burlington then had nothing left to face Oakville with after Oakville had eliminated Waterdown.

The field has been narrowed to three in the annual Georgetown Golf & Country Club club championship match play tournament.

Sunday, John Armour eliminated Phil Bludd from further competition, winning their match on the 15th hole. The other finalist will be determined Saturday when Terry Hancock plays defending champion Terry Hay.

Hope Tennis Club To Form Next Week

If tennis is your game, Wednesday, August 26 is a date to remember.

Georgetown Recreation Committee will be hosting a meeting at the Cedarvale Community Centre at eight o'clock that night to discuss the formation of a tennis club centred around the new courts at Joseph Gibbons Memorial Park on Weber Dr.

"The success of this club will depend upon the interest shown by the residents of Georgetown," recreation director Doug Collison told the Herald Tuesday in announcing the organizational meeting.

The courts were a project of the Georgetown Lions who turned them over to the town on completion.

Industrial Fastballers Start Playoff Series

Georgetown's Industrial Fastball league started playoffs last night.

Georgetown Cycle & Sports have been hooked up with Astros, Benson & Hedges meet Moore Park Texaco, and Combines play Exchange House in the three out of five series.

Too Late
Last night's opening games were played too late for coverage here.

There will be two Industrial fastball games this Sunday, two on Monday and two more on the following Wednesday.

Cycle First
Erin is the only member of the seven team league which won't be in the playoffs. As fall ends they were eliminated.

Georgetown Cycle & Sports finished on top to cop the league pennant. Benson & Hedges were second, Combines third, Astros fourth, Moore Pk. Texaco fifth and Exchange House sixth, at the end of the regular 16 game schedule.

Residents will recall Wayne's father, the late Stan Hutchison who operated a butcher shop located where the United Gas Co. now is.

Mrs. E. Caruso and son John Test, 6 Guelph St., are spending a week's vacation at Wasaga Beach.

Mr. and Mrs. A. E. Matthews, recently flew to Boston, Mass., to visit with her nephew, his wife and family and also to meet up with her two sisters from Coventry, England, who were spending a three week holiday.

Cpl. and Mrs. Barry Lewis and son Todd arrived in Georgetown last week, returning from Souest, Germany, where he has been stationed for three years with the Royal Canadian Regiment. They are visiting with their parents, Mr. and Mrs. Erwin Lewis, 22 Normandy Blvd. and Mr. and Mrs. Cliff Johnson, 295 Delrex Blvd. He will be reporting to a new posting in London, Ontario.

Mrs. Harry Goldham, 12 Orchard Blvd., is home again after a visit in Campbell River, B.C. with her son-in-law and daughter Mr. and Mrs. Elgin Miller. She travelled by train to the coast, and returned by plane.

Mrs. John Kemshead, Sr., 71 Charles St., has returned from a six week visit in England. She made her headquarters with her sister, Mrs. M. Foster in Thornhaugh near Stamford, and visited many parts of the country to visit with nephews and nieces during her stay.

At a luncheon at the home of Mrs. Roger Vincent, Brockton Farm, August 8th, a group of ladies from Toronto, who knit for the hospital gift shop, spent a lovely visit at the farm and then enjoyed a tour of the hospital conducted by Mrs. Stevens. The guests included Mrs. Walne, Mrs. Johnston, Mrs. McNeill, Miss Stoddart, Miss Burrows, Miss Dixon of Toronto; Mrs. C. Payne, Mrs. G. Saschenbrecker and Mrs. Laura Moss, knitting convenor.

Social & Personal

Mrs. F. Hodder, Loretta and Kingsley have just returned from spending a week with her parents, Captain and Mrs. G. R. Carson, Princeton, Ont. While there they held a family get together to wish well to the youngest brother Frederick Carson, who is entering Huron College, London, Ont., in September to study Theology.

Week-end guests of Mr. and Mrs. Frederick Hudder, Queen St., were Mr. and Mrs. Wayne Hutchison of Brantford. Local
