

Returns from Cadet Army Camp in West

Gordon Smith, son of Mr. and Mrs. Ed Smith returned home on Saturday after a wonderful six weeks spent in the West. Gordie was chosen from Erin district along with other army cadets from parts of Canada, the U.S. and Great Britain.

They spent two weeks of the time camping at the foot of the mountains and did some mountain climbing. They toured many places of interest including some time spent at the Calgary Stampede.

There were 250 young cadets in the group, and their headquarters were at Banff, Alberta. It was a wonderful experience for the boys and no doubt they will have made many friends as a result.

Recent visitors with the Jamiesons were cousins, Mr. and Mrs. J. Morrison from 'Bridge of Allan', Scotland.

Mr. and Mrs. Ron Garrat and family have returned from a few days holidaying in the States.

A number of the 4H Home-making Girls and their leader Mrs. Jamieson spent the week-end camping at the Conservation Area in Terra Cotta. They entered the Bruce Trail at the Conservation Park.

The many friends of Miss B. Hiltz will be glad to know she was able to leave hospital on Sunday and is at present in Acon spending a few days with her niece and nephew, Mr. and Mrs. Peter Binnie.

Mrs. F. J. Shortill invited ladies of the U.C.W. neighbors

Bill Dwyer Injured, Will Miss Mets Playoff with Rockwood

Concerned Glen and Norval players huddle around prostrate Norval second baseman Brian Peavoy during an anxious moment in the final game of their best of five semi-final Inter-County Fastball League game series. Peavoy suffered a concussion sliding into second base. Later, Norval centre fielder, Bill Dwyer suffered knee damage when he collided with team-mate Bill Neil while going for a fly ball.

Norval Mets run up against the stingy Rockwood crew in the first game of the best of seven intercounty fastball league final series in Glen Williams Park tomorrow night — minus centre fielder Bill Dwyer.

Dwyer and second sacker Brian Peavoy were both taken to Georgetown hospital Sunday with injuries suffered in the third and final game with Glen Williams.

Norval capped their three game semi-finals sweep with a 7-4 decision.

Peavoy suffered a concussion in the third inning while sliding into second. He was kept in hospital overnight, released Monday and was back in his job Tuesday and looking forward to playing in the finals opener.

Dwyer received damage to knee ligaments and possibly cartilage damage when he collided with team mate Bill Neil while going for a well hit drive late in the game.

He has been unable to put any weight on the sore leg and will be sidelined for the balance of the season.

Wayne Ferrier was the win-

Dr. and Mrs. Clifford Reid had as their guests over the weekend, Mr. and Mrs. John Faro, from Rochester, New York.

We extend sympathy to the Given family in the loss of their brother in law, Mr. David Bowman, who died suddenly at his home in Georgetown on Thursday.

Recent visitors with Mr. and Mrs. Dan Connor were Mr. and Mrs. Ron Lomas and children of Aurora.

Week-end visitors at the Eckert home were Mr. and Mrs. H. Stieber and family from Buffalo, New York.
