

Relatives Fly Here From Belfast For MacArthur-Watt Wedding

Eighteen relatives flew from Belfast to attend the marriage of Mary Harriet Watt, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Watt, Duncan Dr. and James Edward MacArthur, son of Mr. and Mrs. Earl MacArthur, R. B. 2, Georgetown. The party included the bride's grandparents. Other guests came from LaFarge, Wisconsin.

The marriage which took place on July 11 in Norval Presbyterian Church was solemnized by Rev. H. Smith and Mrs. Mike Mulder was organist. Mr. Watt gave his daughter in marriage in a double ring ceremony, and carnations decorated the church.

The bride wore a floor length, short-sleeved, brocade gown with Italian lace bodice. A long train falling from the shoulders was trimmed with Italian lace. She wore a shoulder length three tier veil and diamond tiara and carried a bouquet of white roses. Enhancing her wedding outfit, she wore her late grandmother's wedding ring.

Senior attendants were in mauve sleeveless floor length gowns of chiffon over taffeta. They wore pillbox headdresses, short veils and elbow length gloves and carried bouquets of pink mums. The three junior attendants were in similar gowns of pink, with pink flowers in their hair. Junior bridesmaids carried bouquets of mauve mums and the flower girl a basket of these.

Mr. W. Meek, Orangeville, was groomsmen and ushers were Bruce MacArthur and George Watt.

Mothers of the bride and groom received afterwards at a reception in the Odd Fellows hall. Mrs. Watt wore a turquoise ensemble with white accessories and Mrs. MacArthur was in mint green with white accessories.

Scotsdale Wins Impressive ...

Area Shorthorn Exhibitors Sweep Classes at the CNE

Practically all of the major Shorthorn awards won at the Canadian National Exhibition were taken by area Shorthorn breeders McKinnon and Vanderkop of Milton (new exhibitors) showed the senior and grand champion female, Braelangwell Alice Fay, that had earlier won first in the two year old class.

R. W. Gardhouse, also of Milton took his two year old bull Butte Lee Leader 75th to the top of his class, then on to the senior and grand championship, and also won the Frey-song Trophy for best Canadian Shorthorn bull at this fair. A Gardhouse female, Aberfeldy Floozy Rose 2nd was in a class of 17 entries, and was later named reserve junior champion.

IMPRESSIVE The strong herd of S. G. Bennett, Georgetown, scored an impressive win, taking both premier breeder and premier exhibitor honours. These banners were presented by Hays Farms Ltd., Oakville. Other awards from the Bennett, sire were: first in youngest bull class, with the winner Scotsdale Defender named junior champion; first in class and reserve senior and reserve grand was the Bennett junior yearling Scotsdale Demetrius; second in two year bull class, was Bennett, with Scotsdale Caesar.

For Trapped Driver It Was Double Shock

A January 9 Georgetown accident was a shocking experience for the driver in more ways than one.

He was trying out a car when it left the road and crashed into a hydro pole right across the road from Georgetown Hydro office on Water Street. The pole broke off and several live hydro wires were left sitting on his car.

Constable Arnold Vanelief was sent to investigate the accident and when he arrived found the car in a tricky situation.

STAGGERED When the driver was able to emerge from the car Constable Vanelief said he could smell alcohol on his breath. The man stumbled and staggered and yelled hello to the crowd which had gathered at the scene.

His second shock came when Constable Vanelief charged him with impaired driving. He appeared in provincial criminal court Wednesday and pleaded not guilty to the offence.

SCARED The accused told Judge Black he had been in the 'live' car 45 minutes and was frightened so he drank a 12 ounce bottle of whiskey he had in the car to calm him down.

Assistant Crown Attorney Murray Roulston asked, "Do you mean you drank even though you know the police were coming?"

Judge James Black dismissed the charge on the grounds evidence given was not sufficient. He said he wanted to know more about the accident. Whether the driver was hurt and what time the mishap occurred.

NO LICENCE The driver was also charged with failing to take a breathalyzer test but pleaded not guilty and it was also dismissed.

A further charge of failing to produce a driver's licence was brought against him and he pleaded guilty to it. The sentence was $25, or five days.

FALL FAIR Keep in mind the Georgetown Fair, Oct. 2 and 3. Fun for the whole family.
