

City Young People Visit Take Church Service Rolls

A young peoples group from Knox Church, Toronto, who were attending a retreat weekend on a farm near Caledon attended the services of Norval Union Presbyterian Church on Sunday, August 6.

Rev. Blake Walker, youth leader at Knox Church, gave the message and the group of about 20 young people sang in the choir at both services.

Following the morning service, Rev. and Mrs. Smith and family and several young people from the congregation joined the group at the farm for dinner and attended the afternoon activities and the evening campfire.

Mr. and Mrs. James DeSylva have returned from a very pleasant 3 week holiday in Britain. They visited with Jim's relatives in Scotland. One sister lives at Prestwick and one lives at Arisaig. While there they toured part of England and Wales.

In Scotland they were met by their daughter, Mary Lou, who had spent the summer touring Europe, visiting Spain, Italy, Germany, Switzerland, France and Denmark. She remained in London where she will work until around the middle of September when she will be met by her sister Jane and the two girls will return home together.

Jane has spent the summer nursing at the British American Hospital in Madrid, Spain. She will continue her nursing career at the hospital for Sick Children in Toronto starting in October.

Their sister Virginia, Ginney, who was injured in a car accident in July is progressing well and is looking forward to the fall term at Georgetown High School although she still finds it necessary to use a cane occasionally.

Rev. and Mrs. R. Smith and family spent the month of August at a cottage at Fenelon Falls near Lindsay. While there they enjoyed several interesting trips. One was to Georgian Bay where they toured the Blue Mountain pottery plant at Collingwood. Friends from Ormsville have been looking forward to this day for them for a couple of days with some time. Preschoolers are Dorothy and Patricia Booth, enjoyed playing again with the Michelle Hedley, Elaine Roos Smiths. The Smiths moved from and her baby brother, Peter.

Streets in the village are strangely quiet this first morning of "back to school" following two months of holidays. During the summer Draper St. has been a busy happy place for the children. Being a dead end street there is little traffic and the children have had a wonderful time riding their bicycles.

Stephen Finnimore is the only one from Draper St. attending high school. Janice Finnimore, Terry Guthrie and Stephen Smith are off to Centennial School, Georgetown where the Norval grade 7 and 8 pupils now attend in place of the Stewarttown School.

Michael and Lisa Guthrie, Christine Booth, Darlene Ferrell, Paul and Sue Smith attend Norval public school. There are four little ones from the street to start kindergarten, Gregory Finnimore, Derek Hedley, Mark Smith and Debbie Ferguson. They have to travel by bus to Pinewind School, a big step for a little 5 year old.

The preschoolers left at where they toured the Blue Mountain pottery plant at Collingwood. Friends from Ormsville have been looking forward to this day for them for a couple of days with some time. Smith and Drew Swackhamer. In all there are 21 children living on Draper St. Add 4 or 5 more children who stay with families on the street while their parents work and you will know why the street is so quiet today.

LIMEHOUSE

90 Year Age Span at Longstreet Reunion

Forty relatives of the Longstreet family attended a family reunion at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Walter Linham on Sunday, the eldest being 91 and the youngest five weeks. Those attending were from Sault Ste. Marie, London, Ottawa, Kitchener, Hespeler, Oakville, Guelph, Erin and regions roundabout. Limehouse and Silverwood's Women's Institutes met in the Limehouse Memorial Hall on Thursday evening, opening with "The More we Get Together and the W. I. Ode. Mrs. F. T. C.
