

120 Delegation Helped Retain Attendance Cup

by Ralph Hawes

It seems that over the years Branch members throughout Ontario are becoming more and more Zone and district conscious. There has been a definite increase in interest in these two levels of command, and is becoming more evident at each Zone meeting and District convention. This is quite noticeable in District 'B'.

Last Sunday, district B convention was held at Branch 4, Welland. It was one of the best attended conventions it has been our good fortune to attend.

The bus which should have left Branch 120 at 7 a.m., managed to become mobile at 7:30 a.m., and after a detour through Brampton and Cooksville, plus a sight-seeing tour of Niagara Branch 120 delegates, pipe band and colour party, who as a rule are among the first arrivals on these occasions arrived at 10:20 a.m., 50 minutes late.

However, Georgetown Branch was welcomed with open arms by B7 Zone Commander Charles Heath. Charles was pleased to have 120 there, for their presence settled decisively that Zone B7 were the winners of the Attendance Trophy, which Charles has to keep polished for another year.

We believe the powers that be of District B were wise when they decided to follow the procedure of Ontario Provincial Command conventions, at Welland on Sunday. It simplified things for the delegates, and allowed the chairmen to have complete control of the convention. It is hoped these procedures will be taken up by all districts and will continue in the future.

The district convention speaker was Comrade H. L. Ritter, Provincial chairman of the Constitution and Laws Committee. He spoke on two main subjects, which at this time are bothering many branches. He clarified many points pertaining to fraternal membership, a subject which is causing much controversy in many branches.

He also delved into the laws laid down by the Liquor Control Board, which pertain to Legion branches. He let it be known that he and his committee are meeting with representatives of the Ontario Liquor Control Board in the near future, in an attempt to relax some of these rules.

The Convention Parade was the best yet. The Branch pipe band and colour party headed the Zone B7 section of the parade. Members of 120 can be proud of both the band and colour party.

The convention dinner was most welcomed by everyone. It was two hours late. Those members from 120, who had hoped in vain for breakfast at Welland, must have been starving by 4:30.

The ride home was perhaps not quite so scenic, but was somewhat prolonged.

Back at the Branch the Elimination Dinner was quite a success. Many of those who attended won prizes, the small prizes going to: C. Greenslade; S. Law; F. Golden; B. J. Smith; A. Zilio; F. Hardy; R. Hillier; D. Coxon; Percy and Wayne T.

Finhamore; Jean and Ken; H. Ashley; L. Murdoch; J. Green; T. Peer; G. Barnes; L. Miersma; F. Baxter; and P. Hale.

The big one was split three ways: K. Henderson, T. Findley and F. Dickenson. J. Sannucks was lucky on the camera draw.

While Joe was busy helping with things at the Elimination Dinner Hank Russell, aided by wife Mary, and Mary Cooper, ran the dart shoot downstairs. Those who went home with sleeks were — E. Bastedo; M. Hale; H. Dumper; M. Brayley; M. Russell; J. Osbourne; J. Reid; B. Dore; R. Richards and O. Mulder.

The five car club winners were — E. Draper, C. Soper, D. Kidd, L. Ewells and W. Hamilton.

Those that danced to the Country Classics on Saturday evening, and enjoyed themselves in spite of the big crowd, will have an opportunity to enjoy themselves again on Saturday, when the Country Classics will be back again.

There is a prize for the holder of ticket number 8045. Jim Murphy, G. Martin and D. Cooper were the other winners.

Glen Cemetery Burial For Stuart Moody

Last Friday Stuart Buie Moody was buried in the Glen Cemetery. He passed away in Peel Memorial Hospital, Brampton on Tuesday October 20. He was the son of Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Moody Brampton, who would be known to the older residents of the village. We extend sympathy to the family and also his cousin Bev Moody who lives here.

The October meeting of St. Alban's Guild was held at the home of Mrs. Russ Miller. It opened with prayer by Mrs. Bob Reynolds. Plans were made for the Christmas party. Rev. Ruggle will be the speaker at the next meeting, Nov. 2, at the home of Mrs. Barbara Bryant, Mountain Street. Lunch was served by the hostesses.

The St. Alban's Sunday School started to hold their classes last Sunday, the first in the newly erected parish hall. There will be Sunday School every Sunday for children from infants to juniors, at the same hour as the church service.

Mr. and Mrs. George Corbett returned to their home in Canton, Ohio, after a two week visit with cousins John and Betty Wagstaffe.

Mr. and Mrs. Bev Moody and family have moved back from Nanpsee to their home here.

The ladies of the True Blue Lodge held a very successful rummage sale Saturday morning in the town hall.

The United Church held an evening service on Sunday in place of the usual morning service and it would appear that folks like the evening service.

Two lovely solos sung by Miss Brenda McNeil of Georgetown were very much appreciated. Another evening service will be the last Sunday of November.

Saturday night all the little goblins and witches will be out. So, take care motorists, now the darkness is closing in much earlier since we're on standard time. In the afternoon mothers can enjoy themselves at a hallowe'en tea and bake sale in the United Church.
— Mrs. C. Barth.
