

Win 4 of 5 Games in Tri-County Hockey Action

JUVENILES
Guelph 2 Georgetown 1
 Georgetown Juveniles could manage a goal in the second period in surrendering a 2-1 tie to Guelph Juveniles in Tri-County game here Sunday afternoon.

John McNally was Georgetown's marksman. Dave Guest and Jerry Neil picked up the assists.

MIDGETS
Georgetown 2 Guelph 1
 What started out as a fast and hard hitting game was marred by several major penalties and a donny-brook in the third period, Sunday.

Game officials were hard pressed to maintain order. When the final buzzer sounded, the Guelph coach had been ejected for over 30 penalties had been assessed.

Georgetown's goals were by Brian Robinson from Ray Love and Brian Beaumont, and Gene Hache unassisted.

BANTAMS
Georgetown 4 Guelph 4
 A good team effort on Georgetown's part reduced the deadlock, Thursday.

Armel Hache accounted for two of the locals' goals, the first from Gary McFadyen and Dick Popiel and the second from McFadyen and Bill Kirby. Kevin Reeks from Larry Petterson and Mike Forbes from McFadyen & Hache accounted for the other two.

PEEWEEES
Guelph 6 Georgetown 3
 Georgetown's C & V PeeWees got good goaltending from Glen Tost despite the six that got by him.

Robb's Hamilton from John Wright fired a Georgetown goal in the first period. Danay Field from Andy Long and Joe South, and Bruno Martina from Terry Turner, and Hamilton popped the pair in the middle frame.

NOVICES
Georgetown 5 Guelph 1
 A four goal performance by Scott Wakfer was the big part of his five point night. He also assisted on Ian Reeks' goal, Mike McMenemy (2), Reeks, Tim Turner, and Brent Butterworth, contributed the other Georgetown assists.

Tim Turner skated miles and had lots of chances but little luck around the net in this fine team effort. Brian Hayward in the Georgetown goal was outstanding. Rick Hewitt and Brent Butterworth played good two-way hockey. Mike McMenemy played his wing position well, and Bob McCandless covered well in the Georgetown end.

COMPLETES COURSE

BRIAN WOOD

A former student at Georgetown and Erin High Schools, Brian Wood has completed his training course with the armed services at Cornwallis, N. S. and has received a posting to Winnipeg with the PPCLI.

Brian, son of Mr. and Mrs. John Wood, 31 Church Street, became interested in a service career when he was with the cadets at Erin and later, a member of the Lorne Scots regiment.

Chase Fourth Win Tomorrow

Unbeaten Raiders Catapult to Top

Georgetown Raiders who waded into Intermediate A competition a little apprehensively last week woke up Wednesday morning to find themselves with a 3-0 record and leading the league.

Raiders earned their lefty perch by knocking off Dunnville 10-5, and 6-5, in back to back meetings Thursday and Friday, and then edging Fort Erie 4-3 in the border town Tuesday night.

Rearguards Bob Larmand, and Bill Greenshield, goalie Houle, and Al Stitt offensively shone here.

QUICK GOALS

Goals by McKay from Lane, and Stitt unaided 18 seconds apart accounted for Georgetown's first period output.

Creighton from Junior Tibbetts and Stitt's added number three late in the second.

Bob Larmand converted a Blake Inglis pass into Georgetown's fourth goal with a little over a minute gone in the third. McKay from Stitt and Larmand and Tibbetts from Stitt and Doug Selby piled on five and six.

Dunnville took 13 penalties to Georgetown's 13, including a main ejection between Selby and Vaughn.

Raiders rocked Dunnville with eight goals in the first two periods of the lid lifter in Dunn-ville Thursday and coasted to their 10-5 victory.

had 11 of the 27 penalties.

START HOIOPENEN
 Inglis was the only Raider to return to get in on the sniping. The rest of the Georgetown barrage came from Stitt (2), Thorpe (2), Larmand, Picernell, Creighton, Lucas and Tibbetts.

Georgetown used Hoipenen between the pipes who with Larmand, Stitt and Lane was a game star.

Tibbetts and Green paired up in the only scrap. Georgetown

ICE CHIPS: Raiders have added more blueline muscle with the signing this week of former Oakville Oak defense star Don Currie. . . . Raiders are playing in a league that is drawing upwards of 500 fans per game. . . . A number of local fans took advantage of the chartered bus to accompany the locals to Port Erie Tuesday.

COACH GERRY INGLIS

No Reason for that Worried Look
 To hold their post they'll have to put down Brantford, who have also been winning consistently, at Georgetown Memorial Arena tomorrow night.

HOLES IN FORT

Georgetown got stickout performances from goalie Rick Houle, and returnees Blake Inglis and Ron Lane in surprising the Fort Eries.

It was Lane who knothed what proved to be the winner after Buddy McKay, Al Stitt, and Gerry Whalen had punched holes in the Fort.

The teams were knotted 1-1 at the end of the first period, but Georgetown pried open a 3-1 difference in the middle frame.

Charge Two with Break-In at Club

A month long investigation by North Halton OPP ended in Georgetown Saturday with the arrest of two youths charged with a break-in.

North Halton Golf Club was broken into September 25 and $136 in cash was stolen, along with several cheques. Entry was gained by smashing a window. Several office doors were also kicked in.

MAIL BOXES

Pre-Hallowe'en pranksters in the north Halton area also kept the OPP detachment busy over the weekend.

Sunday morning, several mail boxes and a school bus shelter were overturned in the Acton vicinity. Damage was slight however.
