

17 Join Sorority in Impressive Ritual

Mrs. Cynthia Partridge, right presents a gavel and base to Mrs. Dorothy McCarthy. Mrs. Partridge is president of the Zeta Alpha Chapter of Beta Sigma Phi sorority, and Mrs. McCarthy is president of the new Zeta Phi Chapter.

Members of Zeta Phi and Zeta Alpha Chapters of the Beta Sigma Phi Sorority gathered together at the home of Mrs. Helen McLachlan on Tuesday, Oct. 27th. It was the first time since the formation of the new chapter Zeta Phi, that the chapters have been united. The occasion was the Pledging Ritual set up for new members.

The Sigma Phi are the first ladies of the three Greek words that mean Life, Learning and Friendship. With this knowledge seventeen ladies became new members of the international organization.

The black and gold colours of Beta Sigma Phi, lend much to the splendour and regality of any Sorority function. For the Ritual Ceremony all active members gathered in a candle-lit setting and the two presidents, Mrs. Dorothy McCarthy and Mrs. Cynthia Partridge, read a table on which sat a bouquet of yellow roses. The 'Welcome Little Sisters' and Prayers listened to the reading of the words of the Ritual which was read alternately by the Presidents. After receiving their badges the following ladies were welcomed by their Sorority sisters: Betty Lou Bowden, Christine Burrell, Geraldine Carruthers, Eleanor Cawley, Leslie-Ann Ciglen, Marilyn Gale, Peggy Halnes, Louise Helmer, Helen Hutchinson, Marlene Kelman, Beryl Miller, Deanne Mount, Yvonne Muir, Irene Soal, Carolyn Stewart, Norma Tripp and Lynda Tyrrell.

Following the Ritual Mrs. Cynthia Partridge on behalf of Zeta Alpha presented Mrs. Dorothy McCarthy with a hand-carved gavel, a black vase with a yellow rose and a yellow candle in a black holder. The evening closed with Mrs. Deanna Butwell and Mrs. Jeanine Ellis serving sandwiches, pickles and wine, followed by a piece of the specially decorated cake inscribed with the words 'Welcome Little Sisters' and Prayers listened to the reading of the words of the Ritual.

STEWARTTOWN

Bazaar Day Was Rector's 23rd Year Parish Priest

Attending the 20th annual bazaar of St. John's Church Guild on Saturday, Nov. 7 was a special celebration for the Rev. Canon J. E. Maxwell, for it was on that date in 1947 that he was in charge of his first service as rector of the church.

Mr. George Currie, Esquering Township reeve and Mayor Wheldon Emmerson of Georgetown spoke briefly and brought greetings from their respective councils. Early in 1950 Canon Maxwell organized the church guild for the purpose of assisting the church. In the past 20 years, a great many improvements have taken place, and although the guild cannot take credit for them all, they have certainly done their part, and have worked diligently toward each project undertaken.

The first Saturday in November was chosen for their first bazaar, held in the Esquering Community hall, and for the past 20 years it has been held on that same date.

In the fall of 1958, after the church had been raised and a full basement complete, the bazaar was moved from the community hall to the church basement hall, and each year this is where the annual bazaar is held.

Saturday was a beautiful day, and the ladies had a good display of knitted items, aprons, dressed dolls, novelties, and other items too numerous to mention.

The home bake table was filled with bread, cakes, pies, tarts and cookies that would grace the tables in many homes that evening, and I am sure would bring comments from those who enjoyed them.

The children present, enjoyed the fish pond and the touch and take table.

All, ladies, gentlemen and children enjoyed the salad plate luncheon and tea.

The following were prize winners — Mrs. John Dickinson, $10 voucher; Mrs. E. Grant, $3 voucher, donated by Loblaws.

David Chamberlain and Mr. Howard Briggs each won 10 lbs. of bird seed, donated by Master Feeds, Stewarttown (two additional choir members ? ?) Mrs. Bob Kidd, a clothes hamper also donated by Master Feeds. Mrs. Dorothy Morrison of Pine Grove Ontario was the winner of the upholstered chair donated by Mr. T. H. Briggs and Mrs. Charlotte McPhedran, RR 1 Acton won the crystal bowl, a donation of Kirk Kraft, Norval.

We trust all who attended will tell their friends about the enjoyable afternoon, and plan to attend the 1971 bazaar, same time, same place on the first Saturday in November.

— Mrs. Betty Grant

BALLINAFAD

Take W.I. Members on Picture Travel Trip

The November meeting of the W.I. was held in the evening at the home of Mrs. F. Smith. Several of the husbands came along and enjoyed a game of cards, while members gathered in the living room for the business part of the meeting. Mrs. Jesse McEnery presided and after repeating the W.I. ode and Mrs. Stewart Collect the roll call was taken by all naming a country they would like to visit. Business dealt with was the upcoming euchre to be held later this month.

It was decided to still keep the sponsorship of the Korean child. A letter was read from the foster boy and all agreed it was money well spent.

When the correspondence had been read and dealt with the president turned the meeting over to convener of agriculture and Canadian industry, Mrs. F. Smith. She called on Mrs. Marshall for current events. Mrs. Slessoraitis gave the motto Labour is the genius that changes the world from ugliness to beauty. Several conveners gave two minute reports. Mrs. Smith introduced the special guest of the evening Mrs. Harry Burt of Hillsburgh. Mr. and Mrs. Burt enjoyed a holiday to New Zealand and Australia early this year. They took many pictures of their travels.

Both members and their husbands, along with several visitors enjoyed going along with the party as Mrs. Burt showed the beautiful pictures as she commented on them from the beginning to the end of their trip. There were about 40 present to enjoy the entertainment. Mrs. Given thanked Mrs. Burt and presented her with a small gift from the W.I. Lunch was served and a social time followed.

The Boy Scouts met with their new leader at the community centre on Thursday night. It was the 2nd meeting since reorganization. Boys in the community are still invited to join.

A large crowd from all directions came to Ballinafad on Saturday night to enjoy the annual turkey dinner. Over 300 were served not counting the many plates sent out.

Mrs. Win. McEnery is spending a few weeks with her daughter and son-in-law Mr. and Mrs. Norman Sinclair. Mrs. Stanley Sinclair is enjoying a trip to
