STEPHANIE COX'S TRIPLE EARNS BOWLER OF THE WEEK HONOURS

November 7 — One of our senior bowlers, David Burt, broke his ankle at school on Oct. 30, and will be unable to bowl until January. We hope that he will get well in a hurry.

BOWLER OF THE WEEK

Stephanie Cox, born in Suffolk, England ten years ago, rolled a 608 triple to take over first place in the Bantam girls' high three competition.

She had lived in England for eight years when she moved with her family to Canada in 1968. She is a grade 5 student at George Kennedy public school.

BANTAM GIRLS

The Knockers Down lead the league with 43 points a 3 pin edge over the Strikercoos and an 8 pin advantage over the third place Goodie Goodies.

The Strikercoos baffled the Flintstones to take all three games while the Wildcats were clubbed in two games by Dept. S. The Alley Cats dumped the Yum Yum Girls twice and Banana Spits shocked the Swingers in two games.

The Knockers Down clinched two wins over the last place Slow Pokes. Fighting Snoopy were victorious in the first game over the Goodie Goodies, but the latter stormed back and took the next two.

Wendy Bouskill and Sylvia Heisser share the high average of 166. Sylvia Heisser holds the high single, 241 and Stephanie Cox the high trio 608.

NORTH HALTON CURLING NEWS

Sixty New Curlers Join Ups Membership To 310

by Tracy Barrager and June Magnuson
The get acquainted party held Saturday was a stunning success. There were about fifty couples, a good mixture of old and new curlers, that is.

The four end curling games gave everybody a chance to get to know the others. Prizes were won by Bill Sencaton, Flo Ann Kennedy, Jean Dalton, Arline Hopkins and a rink of Ken Jackson, June Freeman, Ray Brown and Betty Wright. Best decorated box lunch went to June Magnuson. A special thanks to all the ladies for their interesting and imaginative decorated box lunches, and the good food.

President Lee Symmes introduced all the new curlers present, making everybody feel at home. The men each drew a number and then had to search until they found the corresponding lunch box and the lady to share it with. After dinner, dancing to the taped music selections of Dennis Hughes was enjoyable.

Success of the evening was reflected by the lateness of the hour in making their way home. The social committee is to be congratulated for a well executed, smooth running party.

This year we have 310 members, 150 men and 160 women, sixty being new. Some of the new members are from Agincourt, Cheltenham, Brampton, Bramalea, and Islington.

This Saturday kicks off our 1st club spiel — a two game 10 end mixed affair. Any one interested in curling instruction, it will be provided on Sundays. Come on out, new curlers, and get the practice.
