MANY HUNTERS AT YEARLY HUNT AT BUCKHORN CAMP

Guests at the Buckhorn Hunt Club in Stisted Township for the first week were — Leroy Coulard, of St. Paul's, Ont.; Bill Burdock, of Oakville; Al Gollinker, of Windsor; Ed Brady, of Brampton; Sid Glover, Aylmer; Don Brine, of Woodham; Walter Scott, of Stratford; Fred Parkinson of St. Mary's and George Fellows of Hamilton; Ken Wilson of Hamilton; Dave Barrager of Georgetown.

BUCK APIECE

Lucky Hunters were guests Alan Turner and brother Glen of Stratford, with one nice buck deer each. Both Alan and Glen are experts with their scope-equipped 22-250 and 2.43 fast shooting rifles.

Alan Turner is also quite the expert with his 50 lb. Ben Pearson bow and arrows.

Much was learned from Alan about the art of hunting with the bow and arrow.

Club members at the Buckhorn camp for first week were: Don Hancock, Glen Williams; Art Scott, Georgetown and Bob Heaton, Glen Williams.

By week's end Bob and Don were leg weary from dogging and doing many chores around camp.

RUNNING SMOOTHLY

Art Scott, president of the Buckhorn Camp was kept busy keeping things running smoothly for the two weeks hunt.

The camp cook was Will Johnson of Dundas for the two week hunt.

The menu for breakfast included porridge, bacon, eggs, toast, jam, juices, coffee and milk. Lunch: Soup, cheese, cold meats, bread, honey, tea and coffee. Supper consisted of turkey, roast beef, venison, hams, potatoes, turnips and fried deer liver and heart, also (and thanks to the partridge hunters) roast partridge and boiled or stewed partridge with dumplings. In other words everyone had all they could eat.

SECOND WEEK GUESTS

Guests for the second week at Buckhorn camp were: Dalton Walkern of Mitchell; Jack Mc-were Jack Herbert with a nice fawn. It was the 1st one for Jack in 31 years of hunting.

Johnny MacIntyre shot a bundle, 1 cow moose and two calves. Teck Yearly accounted for a nice bull moose.

Jim Gambell fired a few shots at the only doe deer he ever saw while hunting at this camp. Teck Yearly who wasn't far away at the time apparently had better shooting and also accounted for the doe.

PINE HILL HUNTING CLUB

Joe Lamothe, Dennis Clark, Ernie Rantz, Charlie Ashby, Al Willis of this club accounted for one nice buck. Dennis Clark was the lucky hunter. These hunters were all from Huntsville except Joe Lamothe who lives near Yearly.

The deer seem to be a little more numerous this year. More about the hunt next week.

Good luck until then.
