

Spaghetti, Meatballs Draws 320 Diners to Holy Cross

It was really Holy Cross auditorium, but for the 320 diners there Saturday night it might well have been a community hall in old Napoli.

Italian Nite sponsored by the Catholic Women's League featured the traditional spaghetti and meatball supper, prepared and served by Mrs. Lorito and two friends from Toronto. Mrs. Lorito is the mother-in-law of one of the league members. AND ENTERTAINMENT

During the meal, entertainment in country and western and folk style was provided by Brian Markham, age 18, Pat McAuley, singer, age 17, Ken Mavery, guitarist and singer, age 19, Phil Monsinger, lead guitarist, age 18, and John Stevens, electric guitarist, age 20.

This group calls itself the Change in Thyne and was formed only three months ago. Saturday's performance was their first in public.

DANCING LATER

Music for dancing was provided on record by Sonic Entertainment, who, in person, are Jack and Dianne O'Sullivan, Georgetown residents for the past two years who have been working together with their disc jockey service for seven years.

The door prize, donated by Mr. and Mrs. Jack Smith, of Regan Crescent, was won by John Vickery of Eleanor Cres.

The CWL's next big function is their annual Christmas bazaar December 5.

cial time was enjoyed with Mrs. Noreen Van Leeuwen and Mrs. Deanna Cleave assisting the hostess in serving lunch.
