

Charge Murder Attempt After Wife Beating

Georgetown Police charged a local man with attempted murder Saturday following the Friday night beating of his wife.

The 30 year old accused appeared in Halton County Court, Monday, and was remanded for two weeks. He is being held with no bail.

The man's wife is still in Georgetown and District Memorial Hospital in fair condition. Her screams were heard by neighbours who called police.

Three Georgetown men have been charged with armed robbery by Georgetown police for Brampton P.D., Saturday.

The trio allegedly picked up two young hitchhikers in Brampton, used a starter's pistol to rob them, and then dropped them.

Georgetown police picked them up at their homes just after midnight Saturday.

For the second time in a matter of weeks a bomb threat has been traced back to the caller, here.

Investigation by Georgetown police on the weekend located a minor who called Bell Telephone offices in Brampton on Sunday stating a bomb would go off in one of their local buildings at 1:30 p.m., Monday.

A few weeks ago a pair of juveniles who called in a bomb scare to the high school were charged after the call was traced.
