Holiday Dessert Recipe Appetizing Roll Call

A community carol service by the junior choirs of the three village churches will be held in Norval Presbyterian Church on Sunday evening.

This special evening of Christmas music was planned by the Inter-Church Committee and is for the enjoyment of everyone in the community. The children and their leaders have been very busy preparing their selections.

This community is very badly divided with children attending so many different schools so this is an opportunity for all to get together at this special season of the year.

Norval Presbyterian Church WMS Christmas meeting was held at the home of Mrs. Harold McClure on Monday afternoon, November 30, with Mrs. Sam McClure in the chair.

The roll call was answered by a Christmas verse and a white gift or donation for the Salvation Army.

Mrs. Tom McGee gave the devotional after which Mrs. Harold Reed was in charge of a Christmas program of readings and carols with the members taking part.

Mrs. Otte of Springbrook gave an interesting talk about Christmas in England and in Germany, and Mrs. H. Anthony read a Christmas story by Dr. Ethel Chapman.

Mrs. Andrew McClure assisted the hostess in serving lunch and a social hour was enjoyed.

The Fellowship Group of Norval Presbyterian Church held a social evening and euchre at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Hyatt McClure on Monday evening, Nov. 30 with a very good attendance.

Winners at the euchre were Mrs. Elmer Carney, who won two prizes, ladies high and a travelling prize, Mrs. G. Archdekin, Harold McClure, Hugh Clark, and Elmer Carney.

The committee in charge of the enjoyable evening were Mr. and Mrs. Tom McGee, Mr. and Mrs. John McClure and Rev. and Mrs. Howard Smith.

The Christmas meeting of Norval Women's Institute was held at the home of Mrs. Jack May on Thursday evening, Dec. 3, with Mrs. Graydon Chester presiding.

The roll call was answered with a Christmas dessert and its recipe. The desserts were amply sampled for lunch following the meeting with Mrs. Vera Taylor and Mrs. George Smith assisting the hostess in serving the lunch.

The program consisted of sing, say or play, with each one taking part. Several Christmas readings and poems were enjoyed followed by a short comical skit called St. Peter Look at Me put on by four ladies. The skit had an inspirational message. Five of the members performed in a rhythm band and played several selections dressed in comical costumes. Mrs. J. May played for the usual singing of the carols.

Gifts were presented to the 4-H leaders, Mrs. Bill Laidlaw and Mrs. Jean Castle.

Donations of food, clothing, toys, etc. were contributed for a hamper for a needy family for Christmas. During the business it was decided to add a voucher for clothing to the hamper.

It was also decided to send a donation to the North Halton School for Reformed.

Rev. and Mrs. Howard Smith were host and hostess at a Christmas buffet supper for the Norval and Union YPS held at the Manse on Sunday evening, Dec. 6 at 6.30 p.m. with 18 young people attending.

The supper was followed by a meeting with Miss Lyla McClure presiding. Charades and carols were enjoyed followed by a book review on How to be a Christian without being Religious, given by Rev. Howard Smith.

Lunch and a fellowship hour followed the church service at Norval United Church on Sunday, December 6. Rev. R. W.

BARN BUILDING BOOMING

Esqueving Township is still largely a rural area, at least according to the building permits issued in November. Seven of the fourteen permits issued, were for barns or agricultural buildings.

The total for the month amounted to $204,000, with $117,100 for agricultural purposes.

Ridley and Mr. Bill Laidlaw explained the new structural plan for the committees and organizations in the church. The new method is aimed at better co-operation between all groups in the church. It was decided to study the new structure further for a couple of weeks and then have a vote.

The Pinegrove Community Group formerly called the farm forum met at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Bill Donaldson on Monday evening, Nov. 30. They enjoyed an evening of playing 6 handed euchre and five hundred followed by a lunch of pancakes and maple sugar. Mrs. Mac Alexander assisted the hostess in serving the lunch.

The next meeting will be a Christmas party to be held at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Spencer Wilson on Monday, Dec. 14.

The snow that arrived during the night to surprise everyone on Friday morning, Dec. 4, was just what snowmobile enthusiasts were waiting for. The school yard and the streets were kept busy both day and night with them roaring up and down and around over the week end. This sport is becoming more popular every day but unfortunately Norval has no open fields where they can be run safely.
