

TOUCHDOWN TIME FOR CUP DRAW WINNERS

Theatre Group Added Talents, Santa Parade

Under the administration of Lillian Barker, Georgetown Little Theatre made its contribution to the Santa Claus parade on Saturday with two trucks, twenty-five men, women and children and a camel. The trucks were supplied and driven by Bob Edwards and Bill Christie. All but the drivers were arrayed in various colourful costumes. Melanie Barker and Barbara Wat did an admirable job of trotting and high stepping along the route under the camel. The pace kept served to keep participants from getting too cold and everyone thoroughly enjoyed themselves. With majority of members being involved in preparations for Once Upon a Time, being presented Dec. 18, 19 and 26, Lillian Barker assumed the bulk of responsibility and painted the sign boards and fifteen posters.

BIG MOVE

Subsequent to the appearance of Vera M. Edmond, Ron Hill, Linda Nicholls talking little theatre on the local TV channel, a committee was established for the cooperation of future TV projects. Their policy...

BREEDERS' BARN MEETING

Proper Feeding Produces More Milk by Holsteins

On Wednesday afternoon, November 25, some 50 Halton Holstein breeders met at the farm of Gordon Sinclair & Sons R. H. 1, Burlington for their annual barn meeting. The afternoon commenced with everyone classifying four cows under the leadership of Bert Stewart and Joe Snyder, the Halton Fieldmen. The winner of this competition was Jeffrey Nurse, R.R. 2, Georgetown.

Mr. Clapp also stated that heifers should be grown rapidly and bred to come in sooner provided they are large enough. The meeting concluded with coffee and donuts.
