

Legionnaires Helped Spread Christmas Cheer with Parcels

by Ralph Hawes

Those who wished for a white Christmas sure had their wishes granted this year. It was indeed a Bing Crosby white Christmas which we hope was spent in the midst of your loved ones.

Christmas is a time of good will to all men. Too bad the good will bit does not extend throughout the whole year. Just imagine what a wonderful world it would be if we were to follow the teachings of Christ by continually having the feeling of good will to all men. We guess it's possible but highly improbable.

ing and day dreaming, back at the Branch life goes on as usual.

DISTRIBUTE HAMPERS

Branch president Norm Ward was a busy person last week when he and a few branch members were on hand to help distribute Christmas hampers.

Branch 120, along with service clubs of Georgetown have for many years co-operated with Walter Gray and his committee at Christmas.

are on hand to tackle this job in large numbers. This year the number of members helping with the distribution of hampers could be counted on two hands. They were Gord Reid, Lorne Cross, John McCartney, Norm Ward, Lloyd Boyd, Art Stamp and Rev. Kelvin Johnston.

Norm was disappointed with the poor show from 120. It caused the job to drag on far too long. It was way after 9 p.m.

number of hampers still to be delivered in the morning. Perhaps it would be wiser to attempt to deliver in the daylight next year.

WINS POLAR BEAR

Joe had more Christmas turkeys for members of the mixed dart league last Tuesday. Winners were R. Lincoln, W. Cater, and E. Anthony, these turkeys were handed to the winners by old Santa himself, who travelled all the way from Bramalea to do the job.

Comrade Dave Lough was the lucky winner on Christmas Eve when he became the proud owner of Roma's polar bear. We understand the holder of ticket number 383668 is being sought the second prize awaits the person with that ticket.

GIFTED FINGERS

Christmas Eve at the Branch saw a new member step into the limelight when his gifted fingers commenced to tickle the ivory keys of the Branch piano. For up to two hours he entertained the members with his versatility for which he was greatly appreciated.

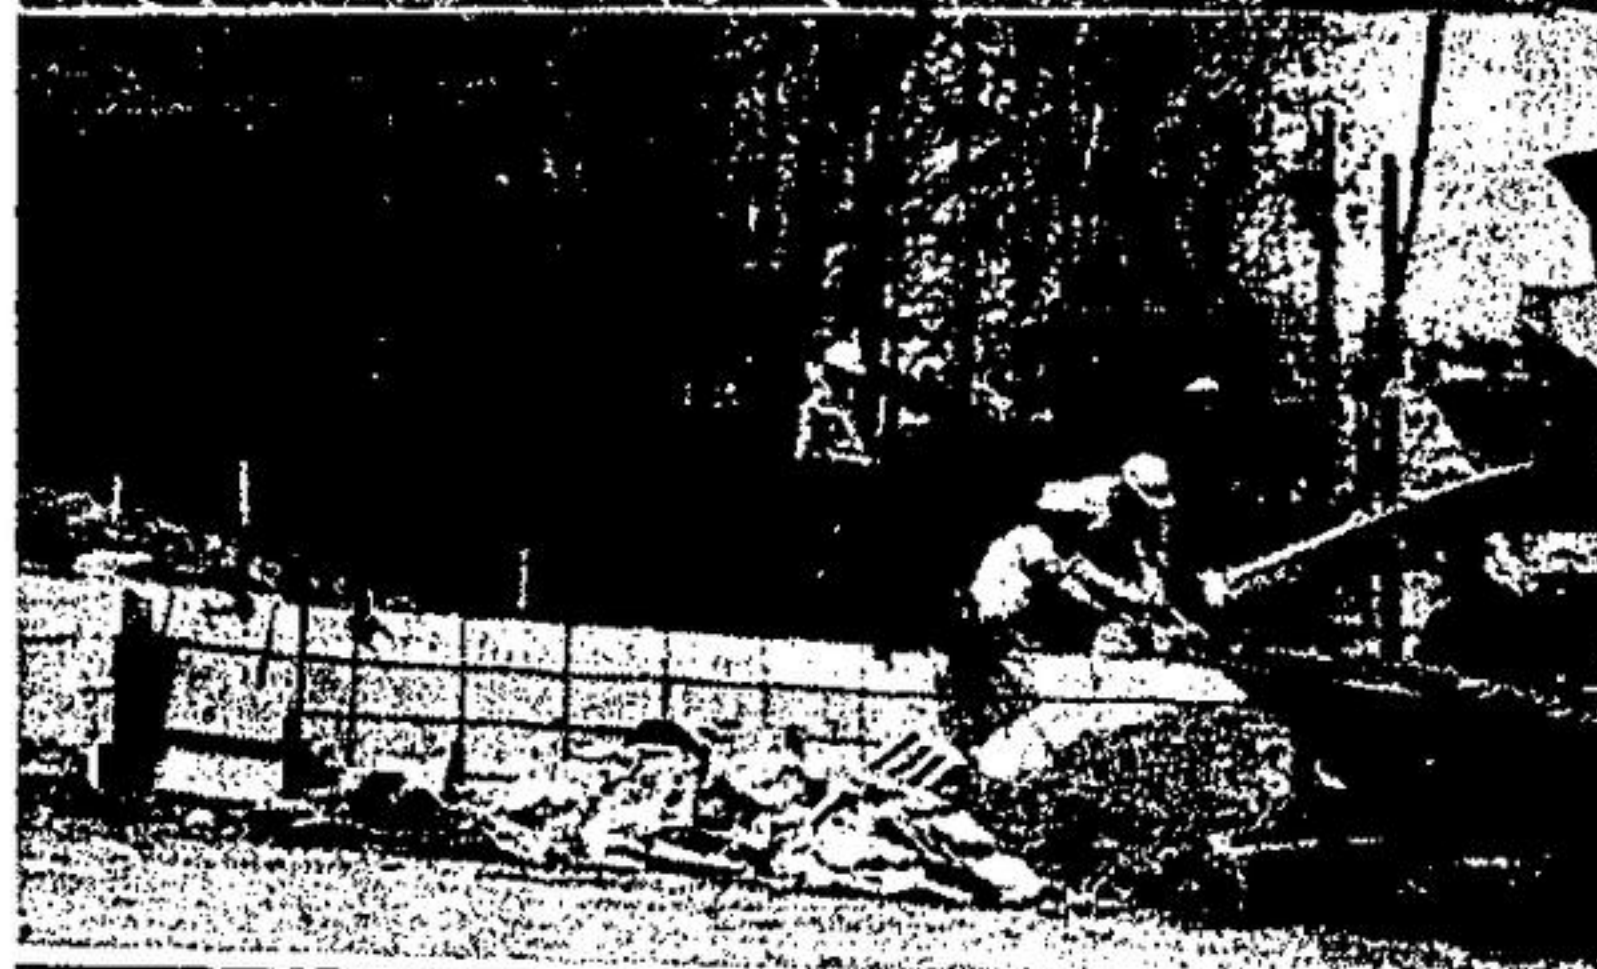

Fred Bootle who joined the Branch in November, had with him his two sons, Fred Jr., who is a corporal in the Canadian Armed Forces and on leave from Alaska. John, we understand, is an up and coming guitarist. Fred Sr. is from Liverpool. We hope to hear much more of his talent in the near future.

BROKE ALL BOUNDS

The Saturday night sing along broke all bounds last Saturday. The downstairs room was packed with members and friends who enjoyed the music of the Hi-Jackers. The mini yingo winners were Mrs. Barry who was visiting from England, Lynda Schofield, Dave Donnelly. The big one was shared by Chuck Hennessy and Stan Bold. The two draw prizes went to Bernice Emond and Ray Turner.

That's all for this year. May the good Lord watch over you through out the year of 1971.
