Bants in Finals of Silver Stick Tournery

Georgetown A Bantams have qualified for a bid in the finals of the 'Silver Stick' elimination tournament by downing Chinguacousy 4-3, Monday. They played the winner of Hamilton and Simcoe. Last night, too late for results to be reported here. That game was played in Niagara Falls.

Rick Becker scored for Georgetown in the first period from Kevin Reeks and Dale Mieczanec.

Second period goals were by Gary McFadyen from Bill Kirby and Dick Popiel, and Mike Forbes from the point, assisted by Bill Kirby and Dick Popiel.

The score at the end of the second period was 3-3.

Bill Kirby scored the winner in the third period, unassisted.

NOVICES VS. DADS

The Georgetown Novices (Fire Department) practice took the form of a father vs. son hockey game with dads winning out 9-8. A grueling three periods saw a hard-breathing (huffing and puffing) and hard pressed father team win by one goal. The fathers had to contend with the bad refereeing of Jerry Lovell (manager) and Dan Henderson (coach).
