Communion was celebrated Sunday by Rev. Ruggie in St. Alban's and the flowers on the altar were in memory of Mr. D. Bryant's father who lived in London, placed there by the family.

SCOUTING AROUND

See It to Believe It... Venturer is Impressed

Peter Young, a Venturer from 3rd Georgetown said: "You really have to see it to believe it!" What was he talking about? The Ontario Science Centre.

The Cubs, Scouts, and Venturers from 3rd spent Monday December 28, at the Centre. From ten in the morning until three in the afternoon they pushed buttons and pulled levers.

They managed to generate enough electricity to light a bulb and produce a picture on a screen. And they pitted their wits against the computer in a game of tic tac toe.

The outing was arranged by the Group Committee under the leadership of Bill McDonald and assisted by several fathers who came along to drive the boys and enjoyed the Centre as much as their sons did.

WINTER CAMP

A winter camp might not appeal to you but to Scouts Patrick St. Laurent, John Owen, Mike Anderson, Paul Carter, Blair Thompson, Ken Lombro, Chris Dempster, Gavin Strachan, Kevin McNeill, and Steven Turner it was a great way to spend the 29th and 30th of December.

Cold? Yes. But the boys spent most of their time eating or tobogganing and at night slept in a small cabin near the Bruce Trail, owned by Pat Vance.

Dick Sucee, a former Scout Leader, and a member of the Lions Club, the sponsors of this 8th Georgetown Group, accompanied the boys together with his son, Bruce, a Venturer, and Andy St. Laurent an active parent.

TRADITIONAL SKIT

5th Georgetown B Pack shared their Christmas party this year with the Cubs from 3rd Georgetown and their leaders, Mary Hay and Sandy Keir. In the established tradition of B Pack the skit "Twas The Night Before Christmas" (revised version) was presented.

While Akela, Terry Colter, narrated, the Cubs romped their way through the poem with squeaking mice, pillow fights, breaking windows and even Santa falling out of the chimney. Everything turned out fine, though, when real gifts were given out at the end.

Hot chocolate and cookies were served by Mrs. Jeanette Mercer, Mrs. Mary Leonard and Miss Jeanine d'Entremont and Rosa Colter was in charge of the scenery.

RADIO TOUR

Brian Williams of CHIC radio in Brampton conducted the Honour Sixes of 5th Georgetown B Pack (November and December) on a tour of the station. In the news-room a teleprinter received weather reports and news, other than local.

The control room, where the records and commercials are played and announcements made, was presided over that day by announcer, Donny 'B' Biefer.

The amount of activity, the variety of equipment and the precise timing required for a smooth running program held the interest of the Cubs; Akela Terry Colter; and drivers Pearce Porter and Mr. and Mrs. Jack Mercer.

Scouts and skills go together like ham and eggs. This was the scene at Limehouse community hall recently when Limehouse Scouts displayed their many qualities for an audience composed mainly of Cubs.

That killing of a bird temporarily reduces the population of that species by one, while the permanent removal of a nesting shrub, tree, or site reduces the production potential of that species forever.
