Sheridan College
REQUIRES A
Study Co-ordinator
For Community Arts and Crafts

The College will commence a survey of existing arts and crafts programs and resources in Peel and Halton counties and attempt to estimate present and future needs for well qualified instructors in arts and crafts.

The co-ordinator, with some advice from college personnel, will conduct the survey beginning about Feb. 1st, 1971, and have a written report ready by April 30. The study will be used as a basis for establishing a training program for instruction in arts and crafts.

While the position is temporary, it will require about 10 hours per week, but some of it can be done on weekends and evenings. The successful applicant must have a car and should have considerable experience in arts and crafts.
A resident of Peel or Halton who can relate well to community groups will be preferred.
Apply in writing giving qualifications and experience, by January 25th to
