'Open House' for Bank Back at the Old Stand

A week end at moving, and the Canadian Imperial Bank of Commerce, downtown branch, opened in its old location at the Main and Mill corner on Monday.

The bank has been in temporary quarters on Mill St. in the former Dr. R. T. Paul home while the old building was razed and a new one constructed.

Mrs. Ann Lysy of the bank staff, unpacks box of records in Bank of Commerce's new downtown branch.

His many friends will be glad to hear that Marty Wheeler is making good progress in Toronto Western Hospital where he was taken early in November after suffering a broken back in a car accident.

He has recently been taken from the striker bed to an ordinary bed and so is that much closer to complete recovery. Keep up the good work, Marty.

This week Mr. and Mrs. Douglas Starret and family left on a motor trip to Florida. They will tour around and also visit with their mother, Mr. and Mrs. Ed Sharpe of Rochester who are wintering at Hollywood, Florida.

Morrow Fights Church Rezone

Reeve Ric Morrow served notice he intends to reactivate the issue of rezoning of land on Mountainview for the Alliance Church.

At committee meeting, Monday night, he said he would present a motion next Monday to prepare a by-law repealing the by-law which zoned the area for a church.

He pointed out council has the authority as long as the action was taken before the OMB hearing. The date for this has not yet been set.
