Snowmobile Safety is Sheridan Course Topic

Sheridan College will offer a course designed to train snowmobile operators in methods of safe operating techniques.

The two week course called Sheridan Safe S-Know Mobiling will be conducted January 23 and January 30 on the 200 acre campus site at Sheridan's Heavy Equipment School in Milton.

Administrator of the Heavy Equipment School, Wilf Fournier, whose main responsibility centres around safety, will be chief instructor for the course.

Some classroom instruction will be given however, the practical application will be conducted on the open fields at the campus site.

All safety aspects of snow-mobiling will be taught, from starting and stopping the snow machine to learning snowmobile regulations issued by the Department of Transport and what local by-laws must be observed.

WHAT TO DO

Snowmobilers will be instructed on compass reading, driving and steering on hard snow, soft snow and ice, different ground conditions, ecology and pollution problems and noise nuisance.

Students will also be advised on what to do in emergency situations when there is an engine failure or accident, survival methods in cold weather, what type of clothing and equipment to take on long trips and how to tow sleighs and disabled machines.

Hipkin's Rink Winners in Halton - Peel Bonspiel

A Georgetown rink won the fourth event in the annual Halton and Peel Bonspiel for the Kennedy Ford Trophy on Saturday.

Ron Hipkins with Larry Gardner, Ed Maki and Jim Dalton, belted Duke Savage of Brampton 13-2 in the fourth event title game.

Hipkins had beaten Scott Munro of Mississauga in one semi-final match while Savage had emerged winner over Mel Blow of Acton.

The final matches were held at the Milton Curling Club where Bob Oswald, skipped by Oakville Curling Club risk to a 7-5 triumph over Georgetown's Doug Ellis.

The championship game went right down to the last rock.

Earlier in the day Oswald had beaten Maurice Beatty of the host club in one first event semi-final while Doug Ellis had defeated another Georgetown rink skipped by Pat Chamberlain.

Bill Dixon of Brampton won the second event championship 9-7 over George St. Amand of Bolton. In the semi Dixon trounced Don Gardhouse of Hillsburgh and St. Amand beat Harry Graham of Brampton.

Don Sedman of Oakville won the third event title beating Reiner Wajter. In the semi-finals Sedman had beaten out another Georgetown rink, this one skipped by Graham Farnell while Wajter bettered Bruce McLean of Mississauga.

Bill Cunningham Returned as Fire Bureau Chairman

Jim Jeffries, District Deputy Chief of Burlington Fire Department, was named chairman of Halton Fire Prevention Bureau for 1971 at the group's annual meeting held in Milton Fire Hall. Vice chairman is lieutenant Glenn Stringer of Milton Fire Department.

No changes were made in the secretary's and treasurer's posts when the Bureau held its inaugural meeting. Inspector Peter Campbell of Oakville Fire Department was returned to his sixth term as secretary and firefighter William Cunningham of Georgetown was returned as treasurer.

Committee chairmen are — Chief Douglas Wilson of Oakville, literature; Chief A. E. Clement, Milton, public relations; firefighter George Honey, of Burlington and Chief J. C.

Cunningham of Georgetown, in-ty program. Auditors are fire spection programs; firefighter fighters Bert Fowler and Lloyd Jim Coulson, Milton, poster McIntyre of Acton Fire Depart contest; and Captain Harold Coulson, Milton, Christmas safe-ment.
