

Georgetown PeeWees Sweep Semi Finals, Meet Chinguacousy

Andy Broadbent finds daylight on the goalies glove side and scores for Canadian Tire.

PLAYOFFS

Georgetown C & V Motors PeeWees have earned the right to play Chinguacousy for the Tri-County PeeWee A championship by eliminating Preston in two games.

Georgetown finished off the Prestons 1-0 in game two in Preston on Sunday in a game that saw Glen Tost excel in shutting out the opposition.

John Wright scored Georgetown's goal on an unassisted effort.

Georgetown gained a 4-0 victory in the series opener here Thursday. John Wright was a three goal sniper in this one with Bruno Martina getting the other. Jeff Coulghan, Bruno Martina, Robby Hamilton, Andy Long and John Wright each had an assist.

The Novice A series between Georgetown and Preston is tied with Preston winning 4-3 here on Thursday and Georgetown Fire Department winning 3-1 in Preston, Sunday.

Scott Wakfer, scored two and Rick Hewitt one, Sunday. Ian Reeks produced Georgetown's only assist.

Drum Major 13 Years Retires From Pipe Band

Drum Major Marg Hillier, retired from the Georgetown Girls Pipe Band, at the end of the season, ending 13 years of marching and playing with the widely known band. She was presented with a sterling silver bracelet as a reminder of her years with the band.

It was a busy year for the band with parades in Windsor, at the Lions Club convention, at Acon, Clarkson, and Georgetown's Decoration Day service, at Port Credit, Brampton, Bramalea, Shelburne, and St. Catharines.

In addition to all these they added their swinging lilt to many local affairs including the Fall Fair, the Santa Claus parade, and the Remembrance Day parade.

Georgetown Figure Skating Club pro Rick Dowling coached a team in the Canadian Figure Skating Championships in Winnipeg.

He accepted the nomination and travelled to Winnipeg with his brother John Dowling and Anne Jarrett of Oakville who were entered in the Novice Dance Competition.

This is Dowling's first year as a professional and proves his capabilities are adequate in coaching at the championship level.

WORK ON SHOW

His ideas are being utilized for the Georgetown Figure Skating Club's ice carnival, Holidays on Ice, which will be presented in February.

Dowling returned to Georgetown this week to continue working on the show with the other members of the local professional skating staff Gale Verhaegen and Sharon Dwyer.
