

Hammer, Family, Lunch Work Party Requisites

Seventy three Cubs and 15 Leaders pasted, cut, glued and stapled their way thru a series of Crafts on Saturday afternoon at the Master Feeds Research Farm. The occasion was a Cub Conference for Crafts.

D.C. Gord Douglas opened the conference, spoke briefly to the boys, then turned them over to their Craft Instructors. Forbes Cole of Acton demonstrated Mosaics made from paper and plastic cuttings. Mary Hay showed how to make Plastic Woggles; Karen Leonard produced Felt Bookmarks; Gerry Clarke made Popsicle Stick Posters and Irene Hayward made Bill Holders from Paper Plates and Macaroni while Ann Lissy designed Love Bands with Paper Clips and Mac-tac.

Freshie and Cookies were served and a rousing game concluded a successful afternoon.

CUBS BOWL

Eighteen Cubs from 3rd Georgetown, with their Ake-la, Sandy Keir, went Bowling Friday night. The boys thoroughly enjoyed the Sn: Bar and the Bowling.

LAY FLOORS

"Bring a hammer your family, and a lunch." Those are the requirements for a work party going out to the Blue Springs Training Lodge this Saturday to lay floors.

District Scouters are urged to take part in this all day effort (from 9 a.m. to 4 p.m.) to get Blue Springs finished.

Remember, 1st Left after the Caroline Nurseries, the other side of Acton, then left again at the Block House.

Give a hand!

Popsicle sticks can be made into a pot coaster. Roger Clark displays the finished product for Cubs.

Lloyd Middleton watches carefully as George Mann demonstrates weather-weaving.

Paper clips became necklace.

Cubs sprinkle coloured stones on glued surface to create mosaics at Saturday's Cub Conference.

WOULD BUILD ST. FRANCIS FOR QUARTER MILLION

Low tender bid of $252,333 was accepted by a committee of Halton County Separate School Board trustees for construction of the St. Francis of Assisi separate school in Georgetown.

It is expected the tender will be officially accepted by the board at its February meeting.

Construction of St. Francis of Assisi school is expected to start as soon as possible with completion by October.

The low bid was submitted by Whitney Construction Co. of Brampton. There were nine bids ranging from a high of $281,000

MAY DROP SATURDAY GAMES

Georgetown's minor baseball house league may drop its Saturday morning games and just play Tuesday and Thursday evenings this year.

At a recent meeting of the Georgetown baseball association the non-Saturday games proposal was put forward. No action was taken on the idea but the idea appears to be looked on favourably by the majority.

Gerry Perkins was appointed umpire-in-chief of the Georgetown Baseball Association for 1971 at the meeting.

Gordon Morton has resigned as treasurer and Mrs. Heather Townsend has been appointed to fill the vacancy.

NORVAL

Annual Dinner Meeting Norval Presbyterians

The annual meeting of Norval Presbyterian Church was held on Friday, January 22 following an evening pot luck dinner.

Rev. Howard D. Smith led in devotions and was chairman for the meeting. Mrs. T. Dixon Duff was appointed secretary.

Financial statements were available to all and contained reports from the treasurers of the Alexander WMS, Sunday School, W.A. Young Peoples, COC and National Development Fund. All reports were noted and approved as printed.

Hyatt McClure, chairman of the board of managers, expressed appreciation for the help received during the year and particularly prior to the arrival of Rev. H. D. Smith when repairs and other work was being done on the manse and church property.

New tables and chairs in use were largely made possible through a bequest by the late Edith Beatrice White.

Rev. Smith thanked all members and committees for their loyal support during the year.

New members elected to the board of managers for 3 years are: Sam McClure, Andrew McClure, John V. McClure and Harold Reed. Those with two years remaining — Hyatt McClure, Percy Leslie, Bill Donaldson and Archie Holmes. Those for one year — Hugh Clark, Elmer Carney, James Archdekin and Arthur Davis.

Mrs. Robert Carney agreed to continue as treasurer. Mrs. Dixon Duff was appointed auditor. Music committee, Mrs. Karen Carney, Mrs. Ann Little, Mrs. Jean Crichton and Mrs. Marjorie Reynolds to work with the organist, Mrs. Mulder, and Rev. H. Smith. Manse committee — Mrs. Hugh Clark and Mrs. James Davis with the chairman of the board of managers.

New hymn books will be purchased.

The annual meeting will again be held in the evening in 1972 during the fourth week of January following a pot luck dinner.

At a recent meeting of the Norval Ladies Association for Brownies, Guides and Rangers, held at the Presbyterian Church with Mrs. Lois McArthur in the chair, plans were made to hold a Valentine Tea and Bake Sale in the Presbyterian Church on Saturday, Feb. 13. Proceeds will be for the assistance of the three groups. Everyone is welcome. For further details watch the Coming Events column.
