Remodelled House Will Become New Restaurant

The old Speight home, a landmark on Guelph Street 2 near Canadian Tire, will be turned into a steak house and cocktail lounge by its owner Michael Bacic, 3 Delrex Blvd. and his partner George Parides of Kitchener.

The outside will not be radleally changed, but gracious verandah, indicative; of its time, will be removed to be replaced with a front entrance with stairways leading upstairs to the restaurant and banquet area. The upstairs area will seat 75 and the downstairs 52.

MEDITERRANEAN

Theinterior will be Mediterranean, but the food will be both Canadian and Mediterrancah.

An addition will also be made at the back, which will include kitchen area, both a cooking kitchen downstairs and a serving kitchen up-

The fully air-conditioned and carpeted restaurant will have aparking in the rear. The entrance to the parking area will be at the side where the present sunken driveway is now. This will be filled in to bring it up level with the surrounding area.

AIM FOR MAY

In addition to dinners and eocktails, Bacie plans, to feature business men's lunches, as he feels the location is ideal for business men who do not have the time to travel

Cassidy Contractors of Toronto hope to start work on the building in a few weeks and would like to open around May 1.

Guelph St. house will become steak house.
