

Pineview to Glen Shifts Confuse Norval Parents

A mistake was made in last week's column regarding the school attended by the Esquering kindergarten pupils from the Norval area. This year they are attending Pineview public school for half a day and not Glen Williams school as stated.

The mistake was easily made as the kindergarten children have been shifted back and forth between these two schools since the school board included kindergarten pupils in the schools of this area.

One local family had quite an experience a couple of years ago. Their eldest son attended Pineview school by bus as a kindergarten pupil. Next year it was the turn of his younger brother to attend kindergarten. He was picked up by bus each day as his brother was in the previous year.

A few weeks after school started the mother found it necessary to get in touch with the children during school hours. Imagine her shock when she phoned Pineview school and was told there was no pupil by that name attending that school. She was advised to try Glen Williams School and that is where she found him.

If parents of the community have trouble keeping track of what school their children are attending, you will understand the problems of a mere newspaper correspondent keeping up with the changes.

The first executive meeting of Norval United Church was held at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Lloyd Holloway on Wednesday evening, January 20 with Rev. R. Walter Ridley presiding.

The main business of the evening was appointing members to the four committees with 9, 10 or 10 appointed to each committee and their duties briefly outlined.

sponsored by Norval public school to be held at the school this Friday evening. Pony rides, snowmobile rides, skating, and a booth for hot dogs, hot chocolate and coffee will be featured. The school grounds will be lit by electrical lighting for the occasion. The committee are looking forward to a good attendance from the community.

Mrs. O. Carter's Sunday School class of St. Paul's Anglican Church held an enjoyable skating party at the outdoor rink at Norval Public School on Sunday, January 24 following the church service. Pupils could not attend the party if they had not attended the church service. Sixteen pupils enjoyed the skating and outdoor fun followed by hot dogs and hot chocolate at the home of their teacher.

Get well wishes are extended to Dr. Forbes of Draper Street who has returned home from a few days in Georgetown & District Memorial Hospital.

Poetry into Music Sorority's Program

Zeta Phi chapter of the Beta Sigma Phi Sorority held their second January meeting at the home of Les-Ann Gilden on Monday evening, January 17. The business meeting was followed by a program entitled Poetry into Music was presented by Deanna Butwell and Deanne Mount.

Deanna Butwell began by explaining how the programme was to be presented then she played the Rodgers & Hammerstein number The Hills Are Alive with the Sound of Music, or 10 appointed to each committee and their duties briefly outlined.

Shall Walk Upon the Hills" by Grace Crowell. Deanna Butwell then played "Dream the Impossible Dream" by Marion and Leigh from the musical production "Man of La Mancha" in conclusion the two ladies took turns in reading the following which was printed in The Torch, the monthly magazine of Beta Sigma Phi.

DESIDERATS
GO PLACIDLY AMONG THE NOISE AND HASTE and remember what peace there may be in silence. As far as possible without surrender be on good terms with all persons.

SPEAK YOUR TRUTH QUIETLY AND CLEARLY; and listen to others, even the dull and the ignorant; they too have their story. Avoid loud and aggressive persons, they are vexatious to the spirit. If you compare yourself to others; you may become vain and bitter; for always there will be greater and lesser persons than yourself.

ENJOY YOUR ACHIEVEMENTS AS WELL AS YOUR PLANS. Keep interested in your own career; however humble; it is a real possession in the changing fortunes of time. Exercise caution in your business affairs; for the world is full of trickery. But let this not blind you to what virtue there is; many persons strive for high ideals; and everywhere life is full of heroism.

BE YOURSELF. Especially do not feign affection. Neither be cynical about love; for in the face of all aridity and disenchantment it is perennial in the grass.

TAKE KINDLY THE COUNSEL OF YEARS, gracefully surrendering the things of youth. Nurture strength of spirit to shield you in sudden misfortune. But do not distress yourself with imaginings. Many fears are born of fatigue and loneliness.

BEYOND A WHOLESOME DISCIPLINE, be gentle with yourself. You are a child of the universe, no less than the trees and stars; you have a right to be here. And whether or not it is clear to you, no doubt the universe is unfolding as it should. Therefore be at peace with God, whatever you conceive him to be, and whatever your labours and aspirations, in the noisy confusion of life keep peace with your soul. With all its shame, drudgery, and broken dreams, it is still a beautiful world. Be careful.

STRIVE TO BE HAPPY
This was found in Old St. Paul's Church, Baltimore dated 1692.

The entire audience listened in silence and to show their appreciation gave a big ovation to both Deanna Butwell and to Deanne Mount. The evening concluded with the hostess serving dessert, tea and coffee.

The monthly mixed social for chapter members and their husbands took the form of a sleigh ride at Terra Cotta.

The sleigh was pulled by two Belgian horses, wearing bells. Everyone was well wrapped up. Following the sleigh ride everyone drove to the home of Ed and Lorraine Ryan at Limehouse, and there to warm the weary gang, were dishes of hot chili con carne and garlic bread served by the Social Committee. Music for dancing was provided on tape by Barry Butwell.

The February social will be a dessert and card party for chapter members only.

The St. Alban's Ladies Guild held their weekly euchre Thursday afternoon Jan. 21 in the parish hall with seven tables. Winners were: high ladies, Mrs. Cora Snyder; low ladies, Mrs. G. Christensen; high man, Mrs. M. Doherty; low man, Frank Robinson.

The lucky draw prize donated by Preston's store was won by Mrs. Isabelle Davidson. Lunch was served. There will be another one this Thursday to which all are invited.

Despite the cold snow after-noon there were seven tables of euchre in the parish hall last Thursday. High ladies score -- Betty Garvin; low ladies Mina Crawford, Orangeville; high man's Mrs. H. Preston Sr.; low man's Mrs. H. Compton. The lucky prize of a bag of groceries donated by Preston's store was won by Mr. Clare Wilson. Ladies served lunch. There'll be another euchre this Thursday.

Because of the stormy conditions and impassable roads last week relatives from the Listowel area visiting Mrs. Kay Felker and Mrs. Wm. Collier had to stay over. Visitors were Mrs. Viola Felker, Mr. and Mrs. Bill Jonas of Kurtzville and Dave Dickert and Hilda and Marilyn Stenmler of Ilariston.

Our school was closed for one day and the school buses were not running but compared to other parts of southern Ontario, we were very fortunate. -- Mrs. Cecil Barth
