Busy Season Ahead For Palette, Pencil

Enthusiasm will be the key to the upcoming season of the Palette and Pencil Club members.

Plans have been finalized for the entire spring course and will include refreshers in everything from still life to landscape, stressing seasonal differences. Encouraging members to create is the planning of an exhibition this year.

At a recent meeting president Mrs. Wendy Blykes recapitulated the courses and accomplishments of club members in the last six months. They included a weekend at the Don School of Art studying portraiture with Tom Cayley; weekend seminar at Geneva Park studying water colour, mixed media and oil painting with such instructors as Alex Miller; and a recent 10 week course in life drawing sponsored by the club, with Gary Hamilton of Sheridan College.

Future plans include courses of the same nature plus club projects such as an exhibition and local sketch trips.

The club is exhibiting paintings regularly at several local establishments. That Georgetown has many keen artists can be proven by the waiting list.
