

Explains St. Leonard's Project To Congregation

At the Sunday morning service in St. Alban's the speaker was Mr. Rick Tomlinson of Brampton who told about St. Leonard's House which is under construction on Hwy. 7 west of Dixie.

It is a place where people coming out of prison will find adjustment back into society as well as locating work.

St. Alban's Ladies Guild held their weekly euchre party, Thursday afternoon in the parish hall.

High man's score, Mrs. Isabella Davidson; low man's score, Mrs. Nellie Hulme; high lady, Mrs. Clara Switzer; low lady, Mrs. Verna Garvin.

The prize of a fillet steak donated by Preston's Store was won by Mrs. H. Bennett. Embroidered pillow cases donated by Mrs. H. Bennett were won by Mrs. M. Crawford.

Ladies served lunch.

The CGIT girls held their weekly meeting in the United Church. Mrs. H. Steinfatt conducted the worship service and the balance of the evening was spent in making garters for the Cancer Society. Members of the St. Alban's parish attended the meeting recently in St. George's Church when Canon Andrew Ahenokew, himself a Cree Indian, from Indian Reservation in the Diocese of Saskatchewan, told of the needs and problems of the Indians in this area.

He said with our prayers and partnership and financial aid we could solve their many problems. At the morning service in St. Alban's the following Sunday, Mrs. T. Haines gave a report to the congregation on the Canon's message.

Plans were made for a world day of prayer service to be held in the church Wednesday evening, March 3, to which all parents and anyone of the village are invited.

Mrs. Bill Vanryn of Confederation St. is able to be home again after a stay in Georgetown hospital.

The Building Committee of St. Alban's held a euchre Thursday night Feb. 18 in the town hall with ten tables. The score high men, Tom Norton; 2nd Neil Patullo; low, Jeff Crawford; high lady, Florrie Alcott; 2nd, Mrs. H. Preston Sr.; low, Alice Hancock. Lunch was served. The next euchre will be Thursday evening, March 4.

We extend congratulations to Bill Symons and his bride Mildred Power from Newfoundland who were married in Holy Cross Church recently. St. Alban's Ladies Guild entered for the reception in the parish hall. The newlyweds are living on Raylawn Cr. in Georgetown.

Who sells the most homes for private owners?

I'd say FOBERT

GENEROUS BEDROOM SPACE — In this fabulous eight room two storey home, there is a 19' master bedroom with bath ensuite; a fifteen ft. bedroom with door directly to main bathroom and sliding full length mirrors on the closet, plus two other good size bedrooms. Broadloom in the formal dining room and living room and a cosy den with sliding doors to patio. Included in the dream kitchen is a built-in dishwasher, stove and frig. Two piece washroom, garage and paved drive. Distinctively situated on a quiet residential crescent. Terrific value at $31,900

THE SPICE OF LIFE — Can be part of every day living in this ideal split-level six room home. The family has plenty of room to play in the oversized rear garden, in the park behind or on the street in front, you see it's a court location free of traffic. Mother is just steps to shopping and the school is around the corner. Three bedrooms, big formal dining room and carport. Avocado fridge and stove also included. Dad will appreciate the 8-1/2% mortgage that carries for $185 monthly including taxes. Be first, call now! It's $27,900

LOCATION, CONVENIENCE — And Comfort are featured in this gleaming white maintenance-free aluminum clad six room home that's situated on a big 86' x 132' lot in the downtown area. Separate dining room, fireplace in living room and dormitory type third bedroom on the upper floor. Directly to the garden a walk-out entrance from the basement that's divided into fruit cellar, utility room and workshop, a great place for the hobby enthusiast. A dandy retirement home. Priced to sell quickly $22,500

CONDOMINIUM — The newest concept in living, where someone else cuts the grass, shovels the snow and does the exterior painting and you own a big six room three bedroom home with gold broadloom in the living room and formal dining room. It carries for $163 monthly including mortgage, land lease and maintenance charges. All for the unbelievably low price of $19,500
